JCRC Fall Lecture to Feature CBS News Correspondent Dan Raviv

The Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte's Community Relations Council (JCRC) welcomes Dan Raviv, Washington-based correspondent for CBS News and host of the national radio magazine Weekend Roundup, to Charlotte on Sunday, November 18, 7 PM in the Sam Lerner Center for Cultural Arts at Shalom Park. Raviv will be speaking about his new book "Spies Against Armageddon: Inside Israel's Secret Wars." Best-selling spy novelist Daniel Silva writes: "Buyer beware: Once you crack the cover of 'Spies Against Armageddon,' you won't be able to put it down. It is much more than simply the most authoritative book ever written about Israeli intelligence. It is storytelling and drama of the highest order."

When the World Trade Center was struck, Americans in their cars and others listening to news radio were led through the shocking events of September 11 by the calm, clear and experienced voice of Dan Raviv. Hundreds of stations carried his live coverage for over eight hours that day, and he continues to anchor all the major events in the war against terrorism.

Dan Raviv's exciting, frank "you are there" style and incredible energy have thrilled lecture audiences from coast to coast. He has a unique ability to entertain and excite audiences, touching their hearts and minds with his own diverse experiences and a close-up view of America's challenges in the world.

For more than 20 years a foreign correspondent for CBS News on radio and television, he is now the Washington-based National Correspondent for the radio network, as well as a best-selling author. His Every Spy a Prince: The Complete History of Israel's Intelligence Community was a national best-seller. His book, Comic Wars, is the full story of one of America's most contentious business battles - the Marvel Comics bankruptcy. His newest book, "Spies Against Armageddon: Inside Israel's Secret Wars," was just released in July.

An expert on worldwide espionage and foreign affairs, Raviv has interviewed Olmert, Peres, Sharon, Barak, Netanyahu, Arafat, Mubarak, and all the major Middle East players. He was in Beirut at the U.S. Marine base destroyed by a suicide bomber; in Lockerbie just hours after the Pan Am jet was blown up; in Red Square with Reagan and Gorbachev; and in Poland, Ireland, Africa and Argentina with the Pope. Mr. Raviv is a veritable vault of exciting stories, wrapped in an enthusiastic and charming personality.

Raviv will take questions after his lecture and will sign copies of his new book. The lecture is free and open to the public.

Community Impact Fund 2013 Grant Applications Now Available

The Jewish Federation's newly created Community Impact Fund is intended to inspire individuals, organizations, synagogues, and agencies to develop and implement new or enhanced innovative programs and services that provide impactful engagement opportunities for the greater Charlotte Jewish community. Grants should align with one or more of the Areas of Community Impact, each of which is consistent with the Federation's mission and strategic plan.

Areas of Community Impact:
1. Heritage, Culture, and Religion:

* Programs and services designed to ensure the propagation of our unique Jewish story, ethic, culture, and religious observance.

2 Jewish Identity and Engagement:

* Programs and services that attract individuals and families to engage and/or strengthen their connection to Charlotte's Jewish community and their Jewish identity.

3. Jewish Education:

* Programs and services that increase participants' knowledge of and connection to Jewish teachings, principles, and traditions.

4. Social Responsibility/Tikkun Olam:

* Programs and services that promote the Jewish values of gemilut hasidim (acts of loving kindness) and tzedakah for the vulnerable in our community and contribute to building a community that embodies a culture of service.

5. Israel:

* Programs and services that foster meaningful connections with, commitments to, and passion for the State of Israel and Jewish people worldwide.

Applications are available in the Federation office or online at www.jewishcharlotte.org. Deadline for submission is 12 noon on Thursday, October 25. Notification of grant decisions will be made on or about November 30.

For questions or additional information on the 2013 Community Impact Fund, please contact the Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte at 704-944-6757 or info@jewishcharlotte.org. ☆
