Simchat Torah – Celebrate with Beth El

Join us as we celebrate Simchat Torah on Sunday, October 7, at 5 PM in our Blumenthal Sanctuary. We'll rejoice in the consecration of our youngest students starting their studies and create the sweetest of memories for all of us.

After Consecration, we'll dance with the Torah scrolls inside our sanctuary, into the social hall and out into the parking lots of Shalom Park. Listen and learn as we complete the reading of Deuteronomy and roll our Torah back to its beginning in Genesis.

Make this a night of complete celebration by staying for a Temple family cookout following our dancing with the Torahs. To make a reservation for dinner, go to www.beth-el.com/RSVP. (Cost: $6/kids ages 2-12, $8/adults for members; $8/kids ages 2-12, $10/adults for non-members). ☆

Calling All Middle School Students to Hop on Our Sukkah-Mobile

Afterwards we will relax with a delicious BBQ in the Ballantyne Jewish Center's Sukkah. What a great way to do a mitzvah and have a great time too.

Join us for a grand Torah celebration especially for kids. Enjoy a delicious dinner in the Sukkah followed by dancing with the Torah kid style including flags for everyone. Simchat Torah is all about unbridled joy, which surpasses even the joy of Sukkot. The joy reaches its climax on Simchat Torah, when we celebrate the conclusion – and restart – of the annual Torah-reading cycle.
