The Tzofim Friendship Caravan to Visit Ft. Mill's Temple Kol Ami

The Tzofim Friendship Caravan is coming to Temple Kol Ami on Friday night, August 2. Caravan Eden will be here bringing Israeli culture, music and dance, as well as a message of peace. This is the second time that Temple Kol Ami has had the honor and privilege of welcoming the Caravan to our congregation and we invite you to join us to experience the magic that the Caravan brings. You will never forget the charm, energy, and talent that these young people possess.

Through a mixture of contemporary and traditional music Tzofim presents an evening that will leave you with a permanent smile on your face. Both young and old embrace the joy that this wonderful group of young people represent. Be prepared to sing along and get up and dance. The Caravan, which is made up of ten high school juniors and two leaders representing the finest of Israeli youth, shares their immense talent with what will surely be a warm and welcoming audience.

The Caravan will start their evening off with a pre-show meet and creative workshop at 5:30 PM. Come meet the members and enjoy a creative project with the scouts. Then join us for our Kabbalat Shabbat service at 7 PM followed by the highlight of the evening as Tzofim performs at 7:45 PM. Then join us after the show for a dessert reception celebrating this wonderful group that has come to celebrate Israel and scouting with our congregation and the community.

The cost for this wonderful event is $5 for adults and free for children. You can make your payment online at templekolamisc.org or mail to: 2879 Hwy 160 West #4677, Fort Mill, SC 29708. For questions please contact us by email at: yorksynagogue@gmail.com or call: 803-701-0149. ✪ school and will even be living in the same college dorm.

The JCC creates an enriching environment through social, physical, and educational experiences. These experiences enable people to build meaningful and long lasting relationships. Furthermore, the J provides the opportunity for people of all ages, abilities, and backgrounds to develop a sense of belonging to their community and to create an extended family. We are all so fortunate to have a strong JCC here in our neighborhood for our children to grow up with. It is here for everyone, regardless of your faith or how strong your religious beliefs are. There are so many ways to get connected at the J.

Send us photos of the lifelong friendships you have made at the J, and we will publish them in future publications. Email: lauren.abeles@charlottejcc.org. ✪

Sometimes the best way to care for your parents is knowing when to ask for help.

When the care of an older relative has reached the point of being too complex to manage, a geriatric care management program provides you with peace-of-mind.

Introducing Jewish Family Services Family Connections

This new care management program is designed to ensure that proper support services are in place to keep your older adult relative as independent as possible. Beginning with a comprehensive in-home evaluation, the JFS Care Management team will develop a personalized plan of care, including recommendations for services and available resources, as well as be available for ongoing care management.

When it's time to look outside the family for help, choose a partner you can trust.

Family connections is the only geriatric care management program in the Charlotte Jewish community. It is funded in part with a grant from BJH Foundation for Senior Services and the Jerome Madans Fund and the Stan Greenspon Charitable Fund.
