This initiative will serve to further engage women with a series of quality programs over the course of the year, the first of which will be an Eileen Fisher Fashion Show sponsored by Belk.

Grab your mothers, daughters, sisters, and friends and head over to Belk SouthPark on Thursday, August 29 at 6:00 PM to discover the latest trends in fashion. This annual Jewish Federation end of summer event is generously sponsored by Belk and is open to all women in the Jewish community.

Arlene Goldstein Vice-President of Trend Merchandising and Fashion Direction for Belk, and an Eileen Fisher Tipster will offer commentary on the fashion show, plus our guests will be treated to "10 minute touch ups" with Laura Mercier make-up artists during the course of the evening.

According to Dena Cohen, Coordinator of Special Events at Belk, "Women will discover the hottest trends, plus enjoy a great evening filled with food, drinks, goody bags, register to win, and gift with purchase items!"

Do you feel controlled by your partner? Do you constantly experience insults, humiliation, threatening acts or gestures, bullying? Does your partner control the finances, isolate you from friends and family, treat you like a servant, make everything your fault. Is there violence?

Up to 25% of all Jewish women, teens, and even some men are currently in abusive situations.

Donating an Old Cell Phone Can Save a Life

Shalom Bayit-NC, in conjunction with Safe Alliance's Victim Assistance, is collecting cell phones for victims – or potential victims - of domestic violence. Old, used and unwanted cell phones will be reprogrammed to call 911 and used in the event of an emergency. Donating is as simple as dropping the cell phone and battery charger (in a plastic bag or box, if possible) at the reception desks of the following locations:

Levine Jewish Community Center, Ohr Hatorah Congregation, Temple Beth El, Temple Israel, Jewish Family Services.
