Hadassah Celebrates the Ta Tas By Patricia Johnson, president, Charlotte Chapter of Hadassah

At Hadassah, we welcome the New Year with several exciting events including our 2nd Annual fundraiser in support of Breast Cancer awareness and research. Celebrate the Ta Tas, a program launched here in Charlotte, will soon be rolled out to other Hadassah chapter cities around the country and has already been adopted by Florida chapters. Our 2nd Annual series of events kicks off in September. Don't miss them.

Bra Burning Bonanza: Dillard's South Park, September 20, 11 AM-4 PM

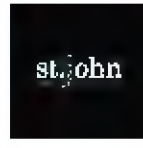

Ta Tas Painting: Thursday, October 3, Levine JCC, 9AM-7 PM
Thursday, October 10, Mint Museum Randolph, 11 AM-9 PM

This year's Celebrate the Ta Tas program will culminate with a pink party at the Mint Museum on Thursday, October 24 featuring several celebrities guests and renowned speakers including Maureen O'Boyle, lead anchor for WBTV News 3, Marcie Natan, National President of Hadassah, and Arlene Sussman, MD, Director of Breast Imaging at Brookhaven Memorial Hospital. Dr. Sussman recently featured on Fox, CNN, and Piers Morgan as an expert on the BRCA gene mutation.

*We look forward to your support of this program.
