Charlotte BBYO Wishes Everyone a Happy and Healthy New Year

Charlotte BBYO's teens and staff are excited for the upcoming programming year. BBYO's mission is "More Jewish Teens, More Meaningful Jewish Experiences." BBYO's is a pluralistic movement of Jewish teens, alumni, parents, volunteers, and philanthropists who serve as the Jewish community's most valuable platform for delivering to the post-Bar/Bat Mitzvah audience fun, meaningful and affordable experiences that inspire a lasting connection to the Jewish people.

In Charlotte, BBYO has two girls' chapters and two boys' chapters with over 200 members. Our chapters meet on Tuesday nights at the Levine JCC from 7-8:30 PM and also have local weekend events. Each BBYO chapter has volunteer advisors that work with the chapter leadership. The teens in Charlotte BBYO have many weekend conventions during the school year where they have the opportunity to share experiences with other teens in North Carolina and Southern Virginia.

So what is BBYO about? BBYO is a place for Jewish teens to call home. It is also a place for teens to develop their leadership skills by planning programs and serving their communities. Finally, it is a great place to explore Judaism and make lifelong friends. Each year, teens in BBYO chapters have many opportunities to plan, implement and participate in great activities.

It's never too late to join BBYO. If you're interested in finding out more information about BBYO or visiting a chapter program please call Erin Goldstein, Charlotte BBYO City Director at 980-253-4863 or by email eringoldstein82@gmail.com.
