

Touch it.

Smooth silver, shiny gold, simple wood. Whatever they're made of, when we hang them on our doorposts, they all say the same thing: This is who I am. This is the community I'm part of. There are as many ways to leave a Jewish legacy as there are beautiful mezuzot, and as many reasons to make it a priority. When you leave a legacy, this simple act speaks volumes about your passion and commitment, telling your children and grandchildren what you cherish, and touching the lives of generations.
