

Hebrew High Students Create a Calendar for a Cause

Hebrew High students have created a beautiful (September-September) calendar that highlights famous Jews from the fields of entertainment, sports, and politics.

The students researched their subjects and voted on who should be included. They found quotes for every entry and did amazing art work to go with each subject. Also included are Jewish holidays, important birthdays (teachers and artists), and our Hebrew High schedule.

The calendar costs $18 and the proceeds will benefit special programs and scholarships for Hebrew High students. Calendars are on sale at the JCC front desk, the Temple Beth El Gift Shop, the Temple Israel front desk and of course, at the Hebrew High office.

Today rabah (thank you very much) for supporting our program and the work of our talented artists. Questions? Call Roz (704-944-6782) or email rcooper@shalomcharlotte.org. ✡

Chai Chaverim BBG

The term has started off with a bang. The girls of Chai Chaverim are having a great time getting to know our MITS, Members in Training, and participating in fun programs every Tuesday. From making clothes out of two garbage bags and tape, to bonding in the sukkah with other chapters, we have had a lot of fun and it has brought us even closer. Every Tuesday program is unique. One week we were split up into groups and we had a scavenger hunt going around the JCC looking for certain items. We had to get pictures with members of different chapters and had to build a structure out of spaghetti and marshmallows.

The MITS are doing a fabulous job learning all about BBYO from their awesome MIT Mom, or leader, Jenna Rosen. They have just joined the chapter and they are so dedicated that they come early on Tuesdays to learn and grow as members. The new members are off to their very first convention and I, for one, am very jealous of them. They will get to meet other kids from Eastern Region, North Carolina, and Virginia. We can't wait for them to come back and tell us all about the exciting things they did.

Chai Chaverim also had a bake sale and we raised $206 to support our chapter and contribute toward meaningful Jewish experiences. We all look forward to Tuesday so that we can talk to our friends inside and outside of Chai Chaverim. ✡

Ohavim BBG

It's been a busy month for Ohavim and all the girls have definitely been keeping occupied. Ohavim started the month off right with a serious and very entertaining program about the Olympics in 1972. It was a great program that really made us think about how good we have it. After we discussed what had happened at the Olympics of 1972, we all went outside to play kickball.

Marissa Uri planned another amazing program about sisterhood and related it to candy. We all bonded and really learned more about each other while enjoying something sweet to eat.

The Regional Stand Up! cause is well being. Ohavim has chosen their Stand Up! cause and it's women empowerment, the girls cannot wait to start working toward this cause and work on it as a chapter.

On another note, Ohavim has been doing some fundraising. We had our first bake sale of the year at the JCC and raised some money for our chapter. We also have another fundraiser at Qdoba. It will be another busy month to come in November and the B'nai B'rith Girls cannot wait. ✡
