Through the Eyes of a JPS Student

for Judaica. Morah Sara comes to visit with her box of torahs for us to hug and dance with. It's fun singing songs with her and hearing the stories about the Jewish people. Next week there is the wedding of Yitzchak and Rivkah. We get to dress up and play wedding. I hope I get to be Rivkah.

When Morah Sara leaves, we wash our hands for lunch. I'm so hungry. I can't wait to see what is in my lunch box. I get to sit next to my best friend today. We say the blessing and then start eating. Look, I got noodles, a Clementine, and tomatoes in my lunch box, yummy! It's fun to talk with my teachers and my friends at lunchtime. Today, we talk about our plans for the weekend and what we did over our winter break when we didn't have school for 10 sleeps. I'm so glad to come back to school after our break.

School is over now and I listen for Ms. Dedee to call my name on the walkie talkie. That means my Mom is here to pick me up. I can't wait to tell her everything I did all day. My teacher told me that tomorrow I get to go to extended day. It's so much fun to stay all day at school. We have a rest time, a snack and more time to play with my friends before my family comes to get me. I'm so lucky to
