

Levine-Sklut Judaic Library and Resource Center

Holocaust Survivor, Eva Mozes Kor, to Visit Charlotte

The Levine-Sklut Judaic Library will be hosting Holocaust survivor, forgiveness advocate, and public speaker Eva Mozes Kor on Sunday, May 4 at 2:30 PM at Temple Israel.

Her lecture, "Triumph of the Human Spirit, from Auschwitz to Forgiveness," is free and open to the public. Following her presentation, Eva will hold a book signing.

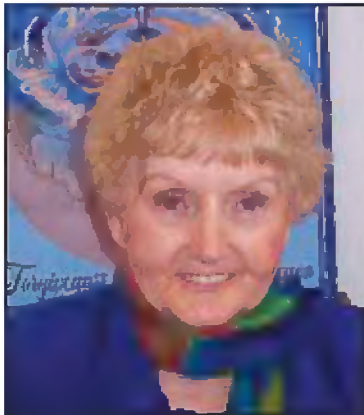

Powered by a never-give-up attitude, Eva has emerged through a life filled with trauma as a brilliant example of the power of what the human spirit can overcome. She is a community leader, a champion of human rights, and tireless educator.

After her family of six was transported to the Auschwitz Nazi death camp, she and her twin sister Miriam were the only survivors, subjected to human genetic experimentation under Dr. Josef Mengele, the "Angel of Death." After Auschwitz was liberated in 1945, they returned to their native Romania before moving to Israel in 1950. There, Kor met her husband, fellow Holocaust survivor Michael Kor, and the two eventually made their way to Terre Haute, IN.

In 1995, Eva opened CANDLES Holocaust Museum and Education Center in Terre Haute, with a mission to prevent prejudice and hatred through education about the Holocaust. CANDLES, which stands for Children of Auschwitz Nazi Deadly Lab Experiments Survivors, has educated thousands of people, including many school groups, about the Holocaust.

Eva will also be speaking at Duke Family Performance Hall at Davidson College's Alvarez College Union on Sunday, May 4 at 7:30 PM.

The Levine-Sklut Judaic Library, in partnership with the The Levine Jewish Community Center, Davidson College's Chaplaincy, Hillel chapter, and History Department, Temple Kol Tikvah, Infoscure, and Temple Israel are sponsors of this program.

A gift that will last a lifetime with no homework or tests. Sample a class, have a nosh, and meet some current Melton students. Those who attend our Taste of Melton will receive a discounted registration fee and a free Tanakh if you register that evening. Learn more on April 29. Please register by emailing Holly Gainsboro, Melton Coordinator, at hgainsboro@shalomcharlotte.org or by calling 704-944-6740. ☆

Kits for Kinder: Passover

Passover is a holiday that every Jewish home celebrates. The food is delicious, the songs are stimulating, and the company is exciting. Sometimes, though, it is tricky to keep children engaged and involved with the Seder. This year, in conjunction with PJ Library, the Levine-Sklut Judaic Library has created ten Kits for Kinder to help enhance your

Seder. Each kit includes:

- * A Passover puzzle
- * Passover sticker scenes
- * Sammy Spider's First Hagadah by Sylvia Rouss
- * Plague stick puppets
- * Placemat to color and more

In addition, the library is also home to complete sets of Hagadot to borrow. To reserve your Kit for Kinder or a set of Hagad-

dot, please call the library today at 704-944-6783. ☆
