a new era for JEWISH STUDIES

The Carolina Center for Jewish Studies has enjoyed a remarkable trajectory of growth, as evidenced by the rapidly expanded faculty, the new B.A. degree program for undergraduates and the new certificate program for graduate students. The Center begins its second decade of excellence with a bold vision for the future of Jewish Studies at Carolina—a future with even more exciting opportunities for our students.

The Center is also hosting a vibrant community events program for the coming year.
