

Levine-Sklut Judaic Library and Resource Center

The Library Foreword

There are lots of exciting programs going on at the library this year and there is something for everyone. Whether you are interested in furthering your Jewish education or enjoying a unique film about Jewish life, the library has it all.

With the school year back in full swing and everyone back in town Florence Melton School of Jewish Learning adult education classes are off to a great start. If you missed summer registration no need to worry. The library has Melton classes starting all throughout the year. Contact Marci Goldberg today to find out which Melton class would be a perfect fit for you. Give her a call at 704-944-7640 or email her at melton@shalomcharlotte.org.

Do you have young children that would enjoy story time? Visit us online at www.lsjl.org to see when story time is offered during the school year. There will be stories and fun activities for children to experience while participating in story time at the Levine-Sklut Judaic Library.

Keep your Sundays in November free for "Movies in November" when the Levine-Sklut Judaic Library goes to the movies with the Charlotte Jewish Film Festival. More details to follow soon.

If you would like to stay up to date about what is going on at the library sign up today for our weekly newsletter "The Foreword" and like us on Facebook as well.

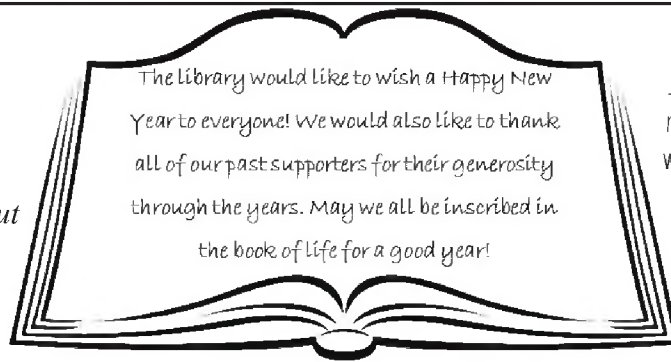

L'Shanah Tovah from the Entire Levine-Sklut Judaic Library Staff. ☆

"They asked Rabbi Levi Yitzchak: 'Why is the first page number missing in all the tractates of the Babylonian Talmud? Why does each begin with the second (the number bet)?' He replied: 'However much a man may learn, he should always remember that he has not even gotten to the first page.'"
