Hebrew Highlights

Why Hebrew High is the Place for Jewish Teens to be On Wednesday Nights.....

There will be surprises galore this year at Hebrew High. Here are just a few:

* Forget everything you thought that you knew about Core Classes. This year we are really mixing things up, with new subjects, new groupings, and lots of fun.

* The unveiling of Hebrew III – five of our Hebrew scholars have received credit for Hebrew at their CMS High Schools and are ready to begin a new level of study. To find out more about this great program (funded in part by an Impact Fund Grant from Federation) call the Hebrew High office.

* Community Service hours available for certain electives. This year we will offer at least one elective each session, that will give the students opportunities to earn community service hours. These hours can be used for clubs and honor societies at their secular school.

* Opportunities for creativity abound. Music, drama, knitting, cooking, and writing electives are offered to meet the interests and needs of all types of learners. There is really something for everyone at Hebrew High.

* Post Confirmation (for 11th and 12th graders) will be better than ever. In this very special class, students are given an opportunity to express their ideas and feelings about Judaism and Israel in a non-judgmental community of peers. This is especially important at this time, when our young adults are being challenged on campuses everywhere.

* Amazing faculty – Rabbis, Cantors, and professional teachers all help make our school a welcoming and caring environment. These amazing role models help students learn how to balance their secular and Jewish lives. A special welcome back to our friend Reuven Green who is rejoining our faculty this year.

* Participation in Hebrew High is a requirement for all madrichim and tutors at the Temple Israel and Beth El Religious Schools.

BBYO Is Back!

School is back in session and so is BBYO. The largest pluralistic Jewish youth movement in the world, BBYO offers high school students the opportunity to feel confident in their Jewish identity, connect to Israel and the Global Jewish community, lead others, improve the world, and create lasting friendships. Charlotte BBYO has over 200 members with four chapters - two for boys and two for girls. The chapters meet on Tuesday nights at the Levine JCC from 7-8:30 PM and also have weekend programming. Under the guidance of their chapter advisors, the BBYO teens plan and implement all of their Tuesday night programs. We are currently looking for a male and female advisor.

The teens in Charlotte BBYO have several weekend conventions during the school year where they have the opportunity to share experiences with other teens around North Carolina and in Southern Virginia. It's never too late to join BBYO. If you're interested in finding out more information about BBYO or visiting a chapter program on a Tuesday night, please contact Erin Goldstein, Charlotte BBYO City Director at 980-253-4863 or by email eringoldstein82@gmail.com.

If you are looking for a wonderful volunteer opportunity, Charlotte BBYO is in need of a male and female chapter advisor. If you are Jewish and over 21 and interested in serving as a mentor to teens, please contact Erin Goldstein at the phone number or email above. ☆

Moishe House Seeking New Residents

Looking to be the next leader in the young adult Jewish community?

Consider becoming a resident of Moishe House Charlotte. We are seeking two new dynamic residents between the ages of 22-29. We host five to six programs a month, in return for a rent subsidy, program budget, and educational training. Moishe House looks to fill the void that often exists after graduating college and prior to "settling down." The Moishe House Foundation includes 63 houses in 14 countries around the world. Email mohocharlotte@gmail.com for more information.

To stay up-to-date with our latest events, "like" Moishe House Charlotte on Facebook and get on our email listserv by emailing mohocharlotte@gmail.com. We always have exciting and diverse programming throughout the month. ☆
