FallFlicks: The LSJL Goes to the Movies with the CJFF

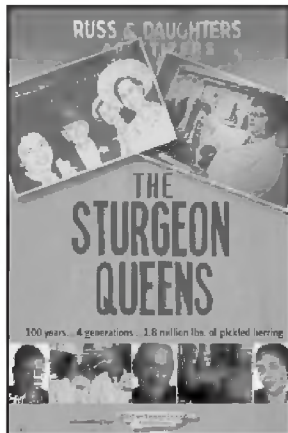

November is traditionally remembered for football, Turkey Day, cooler temperatures, Black Friday, and elections. This year, the Levine-Sklut Judaic Library (LSJL) and the Charlotte Jewish Film Festival (CJFF) are excited to announce the debut of FallFlicks, a brand new film series that will quite possibly become as much a part of November as those other events.

“For the last few years, we have talked about moving toward year-round programming,” said CJFF Co-Director Rick Willenzik. “Having just celebrated our 10th anniversary, we felt it was a good time to do just that.”

“The partnership between the LSJL and CJFF is a natural,” said LSJL Program Director Nicole Lamparello. “Both groups share the common goal of creating programming that is designed to bring the community together for events that educate and/or entertain. Our first FallFlicks slate is a strong beginning to what we envision becoming a staple in both of our respective year round line-ups.”

Here is the schedule:
The Sturgeon Queens – Sunday, November 2
 11 AM – Brunch
 12:15 PM – Movie

The story of the famed Lower East Side smoked fish emporium Russ and Daughters and the Jewish immigrant family who has run it for 100 years and four generations. Features interviews with the original Russ Daughters, now 92 and 100 years old, and prominent customers including Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, actor Maggie Gyllenhaal, chef Mario Batali, and 60 Minutes correspondent Morley Safer.

Numbered – Sunday, November 9

4 PM – Movie
 5 PM – Post Film Discussion
 An estimated 400,000 numbers were tattooed in Auschwitz and its sub-camps; only several thousand victims are still alive today. Numbered is an explosive, highly visual, and emotionally cinematic journey, guided by testimonies and portraits of these survivors. These scars reveal them to be diverse, enlightening, and full of life.

Brave Miss World – Sunday, November 16

7 PM – Movie
 9 PM – Post Film Discussion
 At age 18, Linor Abargil was abducted, stabbed, and raped in Milan - six weeks later, she won the Miss World competition. Brave Miss World explores the trauma of sexual assault through one young woman’s journey from teenage rape victim to activist and crusader who helps others break their silence and fight for justice.
