Legacy Profile

Staci and Darren Mond

Staci and Darren Mond are among the 248 individuals and families in our community who have created 489 unique legacy gifts to support its future. Please take the time to read their story and thank them for their generosity. It is our hope that you will be inspired and encouraged to think about how you can create your own Jewish legacy.

By Staci Mond

Darren grew up in Charlotte and has been actively involved in its Jewish community all his life. His parents, Irving and Rita, were raised in religious households and were very active in the Charlotte Jewish community. He attended Temple Israel for preschool, religious school, and his Bar Mitzvah. Whereas I grew up in Wichita, KS, and was fortunate to be involved in my Conservative synagogue. My parents, Jerrold and Barbara, grew up with a strong commitment to Jewish community life. Having role models like our parents, it was easy for Darren and me to jump in and become active with our family on Shalom Park.

We were married at Temple Israel where our children's naming and bris ceremonies took place. Our family is deeply rooted in the many activities at the Levine Jewish Community Center. The Charlotte Jewish Preschool provided our children an excellent educational foundation for Jewish life. The temples provide us with our spiritual guidance while Jewish Family Services provides community outreach to those in need. Through the years, Charlotte's Jewish community has been a great source of joy, comfort, and support, especially with the deaths of our parents. We have experienced many milestones and are looking forward to joyful simchas including the Bat and Bar Mitzvahs of our children.

We often ask ourselves, what would we do without all the Jewish activities for our kids in Charlotte? It is important to us to keep them engaged so they grow up to lead productive, healthy lives with a firm Jewish identity. To this endeavor we stay very active with many organizations on Shalom Park and expose our children to a variety of opportunities. We keep them involved with religious and cultural events throughout the year.

For us, leaving a legacy gift is a way of saying thank you and ensuring that our children (and hopefully their children) will continue to have a place that helps foster their Jewish identity. Even if our children decide to leave Charlotte, we are happy knowing we have made a difference in our Jewish community. Leaving a legacy gift is an excellent way for us to help sustain a sound Jewish community to support future generations. We appreciate all the things that have been provided for us by others and want to do our part so that our children and others can have the same Jewish experiences in the years to come. ✨

Our Jewish Community's Newest Legacy Donors

The following individuals/families have recently informed our community, through Foundation for the Charlotte Jewish Community (FCJC) or one of the ten Create Your Jewish Legacy community partners, that they have created a legacy gift to support the future of Charlotte's Jewish community. Some are creating legacy gifts for the first time while others have added new organizations to their previously created legacy plans. There are now 248 individuals/families throughout our Jewish community who have included a local Jewish organization in their legacy plans creating 489 unique legacies. We thank our newest legacy donors and welcome them into our community's Book of Life Society. ✨

Jewish War Veterans Meet in Charlotte

Are you a Jewish veteran living in the greater Mecklenburg area? Or do you know a local Jewish veteran who served in the military for the US or Israel? Spread the word and join us. The Hornet's Nest Jewish War Veterans Post 765 meets on the fourth Sunday of the month. Commander Barry Ross, USA (ret) invites all Jewish veterans community wide to attend a meeting. Consider joining and make a patriotic difference in the lives of children, other veterans and the community. Join Barry and other veterans at Temple Beth El, Sunday, October 26 from 10-11:30 AM. Contact Barry Ross at 704-607-5304 or jvw-post765@gmail.com or Eileen Schwartz at 704-962-1868 for more information. ✨
