

High Holiday Services – Right Near You

Once again, the Ballantyne Jewish Center will be hosting Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services in the Ballantyne area. Join us this year and feel right at home. Whether your background in Jewish prayer and practices is extensive or limited, attending services at the Ballantyne Jewish Center - where the warmth and authenticity of the traditional are blended with the comfort and practicality of the contemporary - will leave you feeling enriched, connected, uplifted, and inspired.

Rosh Hashanah is a time when we once again accept God's Kingship, and when the entire Creation, the Universe with all its creatures, is judged. Yom Kippur is the time when the Almighty forgives us for all our wrongdoing. The High Holidays is not only a time of remembrance of a certain occasion in history, but also a recurrence of the original event. It is a time of reawakening of the special relationship between God and the Jewish people, and between God and the world.

Everyone is welcome free of charge.

Our Fantastic Children's Program

At the Ballantyne Jewish Center we are committed to making the High Holidays a meaningful and enjoyable experience for the entire family. Therefore, we are very excited that once again we will have a fantastic, exciting, and interactive children's program during services for all ages. Parents can enjoy services while their children have a blast. Program highlights include games, songs, activities, food crafts, stories, refreshments, and prizes. Kids love this program and learn so much in the process.

The children are divided into age appropriate groups to ensure that everyone will enjoy.

Have The Baby You've Always Wanted

Seeking a Jewish woman to co-parent a baby

We work on behalf of a loving well-to-do Jewish married couple in their 50s who live in the Charlotte area. They missed their window to have their own children, but dearly want to be parents. They are looking for a Jewish woman who would agree to carry and co-parent a baby with them. This woman would be the legal parent/mom along with the man, co-parenting together, with his wife in a supportive role. They would be prepared to provide reasonable and necessary support to the mother and child.

If you are, or know anyone who is like-minded who would consider becoming a part of this modern family arrangement, please email us at support@modamily.com, or call Tami at 323-230-0310.
