

CJP Celebrates the Holidays

The children at CJP have been celebrating and learning all about the holidays during the Hebrew month of Tishrei. We learned how to blow the shofar, say I'm sorry to our friends, shake the lulav and etrog, and dance with the Torah. We visited the many sukkahs around Shalom Park and went to Temple Israel to look inside a Torah that was dressed up for the holidays in white. We searched in the Torah for Hebrew words we could recognize like "Moshe." The holidays are filled with joy at CJP. ☆
