

Start a New Hanukkah Tradition with PJ Library 5th Night Project

From November 30 through December 10, PJ Library will join the Preschool on Sardis and the Charlotte Jewish Day School in hosting the Fifth Night Project to provide Hanukkah gifts for needy kids. The project emphasizes the fifth night of Hanukkah in an effort to teach children the Jewish value of tzedakah (giving with just intention) by forgoing their own gift on that night to provide one for a child in need. Parents are encouraged to shop with their child to pick out a meaningful gift for a child of similar age.

Collection bins will be placed at the schools from November 30 through December 10 for parents and kids to donate gifts. Classroom and take-home activities will be provided to help make the Fifth Night Project and holiday meaningful for preschoolers and their families. The gifts will be donated during the holidays to less fortunate families attending Huntingtowne Farms Elementary School and Sterling Elementary and School. Suggested gifts are games, books and school and art supplies. Gifts should not be wrapped.

Jewish Federation OF GREATER CHARLOTTE

Introducing the Newest Chapter of PJ Library for Kids Ages 9-11

The Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte in partnership with the Harold Grinspoon Foundation is proud to bring PJ Our Way to our Charlotte community.

PJ Our Way offers the gift of exceptional books with Jewish themes to kids ages 9-11 – books that they choose themselves. Every month, from the 1st–10th, kids visit the PJ Our Way website to choose a book from a selection of four high-quality titles that have been reviewed by a panel of PJ educators, parents, and kids. That's 12 free books a year. To make the choice easier, every title offered comes with a synopsis and author bios, ratings and reviews, and video trailers. Kids can also take polls and quizzes, participate in monthly interviews and challenges, and comment on blog posts.

To learn more about PJ Our Way visit www.pjourway.org or contact Tair Giudice, Director of Outreach & Engagement at Tair.Giudice@jewishcharlotte.org or 704-944-6759. ☆
