Moishe House Events for November

Moishe House is a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting community among Jewish young adults in their twenties and early thirties. Moishe House looks to fill the void that often exists after graduating college and prior to settling down. The organization brings together groups of three to five Jewish adults who live together and plan local programs, both home-based and external, for other young Jewish adults. There are currently 76 Moishe Houses in 18 countries around the world.

Moishe House Charlotte began in August 2013 and since then has hosted 130+ events ranging from service projects to social events to Jewish learning and more. We are always happy to see new and returning faces, so be sure to join us. We are pleased to share with you our exciting events for this November:

Event 1: Yoga on Tap - Thursday, November 3 at 7 PM at Romare Bearden Park in Uptown

Daniela Becker has been nice enough to share her passion for yoga in a fun, all levels welcomed, flow class at Romare Bearden Park in Uptown. We'll get our yoga on and then head over to the French Quarter area for some drinks, snacks, and some Thursday Night Football.

Event 2: First Annual Talent Show and Havdalah - Saturday, November 5 at 7 PM at Moishe House Charlotte

Can you sing? Are you able to blast out 50 clap push-ups in a row? Suave impersonator of politicians? If you have any of these skills, or any other top-notch talent, make sure to showcase yourself at Moishe House's first annual Talent Show + Havdalah. Prizes with intrinsic value will be awarded. Email mohocharlotte@gmail.com with your talent.

Event 3: High School Stereotype Shabbat - Friday, November 11 at 7 PM at Moishe House Charlotte

Join us for a Shabbat dinner as we travel back in time to our good ole high school days. Come dressed as any high school stereotype - jock, nerd, preppy, hippie, Goth, anything you can think of. Dinner will be potluck style and Moishe House will provide the main dish.

Event 4: Special Guest Speaker Suri Grossgot from World Jewish Congress - Monday, November 14, 7 PM at Moishe House Charlotte

The World Jewish Congress (WJC) represents a voice for unheard Jewish communities throughout the world. Being the diplomatic arm for communities from over 100+ countries, WJC prides itself with bringing issues occurring at these communities to the forefront of United States influencers. Suri Grossgot, WJC Assistant Director, is going to talk to the Moishe House community about some of these issues facing the communities, the impact WJC has had, and how you can get involved. It's sure to be a meaningful evening. Light snacks will be provided.

Event 5: Game Bar Night at Abari Game Bar - Tuesday, November 29 at 7 PM at Abari Game Bar, 1721 N. Davidson.

Wouldn't you like to go back and play the games you played as a kid? Or better yet play the games your parents played as wild childs? Abari has it all. X-Men, Asteroids, an array of pinball machines, and the world's only 10 player arcade strategy game, Killer Queen. It's $1 for a membership card and bring your quarters.

drives for Jewish Family Services – a toy drive at Chanukah and a food drive for Passover. We even donated school supplies to Sterling Elementary and Huntingtowne Farms Elementary, the sister schools of Temple Beth El and Temple Israel, respectively.

Along with our weekly Shabbat tzedakah collection every Friday, CJP participates in various tzedakah drives and collections throughout the year. During August our students learned about tzedakah and how it can be so much more than simply filling up a tzedakah box with coins. Classes painted giant boxes for us to use as our school collection boxes for our various tzedakah drives.

In honor of Sukkot last month we reached out to an organization called The Relatives. The Relatives provides temporary housing to kids ages 7-17 who are in unstable living conditions at home. As our students learned about the temporary housing that the Sukkah provided for us as we wandered in the desert, we drew a connection to the temporary housing that people need today to stay safe. To demonstrate our gratitude for the homes we live in we collected baby supplies for residents of The Relatives.

This Thanksgiving we are thankful: we are thankful for our students, our teachers, our administrative staff, our parent volunteers, and all of the people who contribute to the Charlotte Jewish Preschool to make us the incredible school we have become. We will continue to show our gratitude through our various tzedakah projects giving back to our community.
