Impactful planetary configurations are cartwheeling through the cosmos!

ARIES (March 21 - April 20)

This could be a time of great inspiration as the total solar eclipse sets your gay muse on fire. However, Rams may discover that play time is rife with trade-offs now; party costs escalate, compadres have their own agenda and lovers are off on their own little sexcapade. Take it all in stride. Dramatic displays will backfire. Play with yourself for now.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21)

Pressures build up on family issues for the next several days. Gay Bulls are tempted to draw a line in the sand over idiotic family mandates and prejudices. Of course, you are absolutely right, but making a scene now will not be in your best interest. Suffer the slings and arrows until the solar eclipse and the harsh energy it unleashes passes. Then show the world the true lavender you.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)

If it seems like you can't say anything right, blame it on the solar eclipse and keep your opinions to yourself for the next several days. Time is better spent listening, gathering facts and formulating philosophies rather than flapping the air. Discretion is the key to inner peace and a successful outcome. There will be plenty of time to blast your manifesto later.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)

Pink Crabs are tempted to break the bank and spend, spend, spend their troubles away. However, the hazy solar eclipse sells you a pack of lies. The fact is, cousin, that money cannot buy happiness and peace of mind. Affirmation must come from a combination of personal values, supportive pals and expressive outlets. Hide your wallet and buy some time.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)

The total solar eclipse in Leo hits you like a panzer tank. Everything that you solidly hold near and dear appears to shift and sink into the sand. This is a time of great uncertainty, queer Lion, so muster up your greatest dramatic display of confidence and ride the energy out. There will be plenty of time to change the support systems in your life after mid-month.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)

Your closet flies open as your deepest fears are exposed for the world to see. Queer Virgins are apt to panic, but this blast out is needed and necessary. Don't boss the course during the solar eclipse. Instead, sweep up the debris and keep things tidy while the tornado breezes through. Wow 'em with your new self-confidence when the wind dies down.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)

Gay Libras appear to have added pressure to their already pressurized lives during the eclipse. Friends appear to expect a lot of attention from you now... more than you are prepared to give. As the landscape shifts, some pals will go their own way and some relationships will be severed. Take it in stride and replenish your social pool as opportunities arise.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Expect a misstep off the corporate ladder during the solar eclipse. Strategic gay Scorps find their best laid plans scrambled. The sure thing is not so sure after all. Enemies may have their moment in the sun, but don't retrench or advance your troops yet. Maintain your position as best as you can until the eclipse passes. Then toss the @#% bastards out!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)

It may not be advisable to travel too far afield now. The solar eclipse can bring unexpected problems and headaches to any journey. However, the opportunity to relax and get away from it all is very tempting and must not be deferred. Call in sick and formulate your trip of a lifetime, but wait until after the eclipse to actually take your show on the road.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)

Even conservative gay Caps may feel like recklessly plunging into a mad love affair during the solar eclipse. Wrenching longing and obsessive thoughts seem to be par for the course now. Poor dear, try to wait until after the eclipse wanes before you commit your soul to another. It would be a shame to shack up with a frog when royalty is just around the corner.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

A new broom sweeps clean! At least that's what Aqueerians want to do with a certain relationship during the solar eclipse. Even if things are not going the way you would want with partners, let these petty annoyances wash over you and not goad you into action...yet. After the eclipse, you'll have a clearer idea of what you do and do not want.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20)

The solar eclipse will create tumult in your day-to-day job. Pink Fish are tempted to set fire to their cubicle and break a few pencils, but this is not advisable. Wait until the eclipse passes before you call a strike. Conditions may improve or you'll have a clearer idea of what actions will have the desired effect. Patience, in this case, can produce results. ▼
