Danielle Hunter, Miss NC Continental, won the National Miss Continental Competition in September. She is pictured here with her NC promoter, Alyson Thomas.

Paramount Television's decision to bring back the show host Laura Schlessinger's bigoted advice sparked national protests like this one, where Renna voices her objections at KTVT in Dallas. The outcry led the vast majority of national advertisers to refuse sponsorship. Retooled twice since launch, the show still garners abysmal ratings.

Oleen's Club, an anchor in Charlotte's GLBT community for 30 years, closed in May when the building was sold and their lease was terminated, purportedly to make way for a new coffeehouse. The South Boulevard storefront still sports a "for lease" sign after several months of vacancy.
