CHARLOTTE

Grassroots names project leader

CHARLOTTE — Grassroots Leadership has announced the hiring of LaWana Mayfield as project coordinator for The Mecklenburg Justice Project.

She brings years of activism and organizing to Grassroots Leadership serving as the diversity co-chair and national female diversity co-chair for the Human Rights Campaign addressing concerns in the LGBT community. She also serves on the Board of Advisors for the Charlotte Lesbian and Gay Fund. Mayfield worked for the American Red Cross for over six years in their financial department and volunteered in Disaster Services prior to joining Grassroots Leadership.

EASTERN

Walk it out for a cure

FAYETTEVILLE — The Fayetteville LBT Meetup group will host a spaghetti dinner to help support one of its members' Avon Walk for Breast Cancer on June 6 at 7 p.m.

One of its members wants to honor the memory of her grandmother, who died last year at the age of 90 and was a survivor, by participating in the 39-mile walk on Oct. 24-25 in Charlotte. However, in order to do so, she must raise $1,800. RSVP deadline is June 4 at 7 p.m.

The location of the dinner has not been chosen, pending the numbers of participants who say "yes" to attending and supporting this cause.

The group needs folks to donate spaghetti ingredients, serve food and help clean up.

For more information, visit www.meetup.com/The-Fayetteville-LBT-Meetup-Group.

TRIANGLE

Sing it out

DURHAM — The Common Woman Chorus will present a concert entitled "Let's Go To The Movies" on May 9 at 8 p.m. at Eno River Unitarian Universalist Church at 4907 Garrett Rd.

This lighthearted event is chocked full of everything cinematic — popcorn, candy and more — without the movie.

A raffle will take place after intermission with the following prizes being awarded — Grand Prize: two 10-pack tickets to the 2009 Gay & Lesbian Film Festival ($150 value); Runner Up Prizes — outdoor movie package, cash for outdoor movie tickets, wine tote and two bottles of wine, $30 gift certificate to Whole Foods ($75 value); date night movie package, $20 gift certificate to Chelsea Theatre, $40 gift certificate to Margaret's Cantina (both are located in the Timberline Shopping Center in Chapel Hill) ($60 value); and movie night at home package, two DVD's or $15 gift certificate for movies, $25 gift certificate to Trader Joe's, 6 pack of Mix 'n Match Beer from Trader Joe's ($50 value).

Tickets are $2 each or 3 for $5. One need not be present to win.

Concessions will be sold. Admission is free. However, donations will be accepted at the door.

WESTERN

Can you lend a hand?

HICKORY — During these trying times, food is expensive for everyone. No one knows that more than The AIDS Leadership Foothills-area Alliance, Inc (ALFA). They have a food pantry which supplements their Ryan White funding for food. Next time you are at the store, consider picking up an extra can or package of food or other necessities to contribute to this worthy cause.

Needed currently are canned meats and soups, laundry and dishwashing detergent, hygiene products, toiletries, cleaning supplies, paper products and cat/dog food.

Other items on the ALFA wish list are office supplies and chairs.

Volunteers are needed for pantry shoppers, client transporters, scrap booking to update existing scrap books and fair and festival helpers.

To donate any of these items/skills, visit www.alfainfo.org. Good may be dropped off at the office at 1120 Fairgrove Church Rd, SE, Suite 28.

For more information, call 828-322-1447.
