

THE WOMEN'S PAGE

Recent Arrivals

To Mr. and Mrs. Barker, Boyden Street, 11½ lbs., Mary Adele, December 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sawyer, Magnolia Street, 7½ lbs. Junior, December 3.

To Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Falls Road, a daughter, Edna Adele, December 4.

To Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Boyden Street, a son, 7½ lbs., December 4.

To Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morgan, Maple Street, a son, December 9.

To Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Walnut Street, a son, December 23.

To Mr. and Mrs. Cashette, Cedar Street, 7½-lb. girl.

To Mr. and Mrs. Blackwelder, Walnut Street, a daughter.

To Mr. and Mrs. Perry, Maple Street, a son.

Personal Mention

The Badin Branch of the American Red Cross reports 366 members for Christmas roll call. This includes members from Palmersville Electric, The Falls, and the Colored Camp. Mrs. G. W. Dotson had charge of this roll, and is to be congratulated on its success.

The Badin Public School has an active Junior Red Cross of 223 members. In December, the children cut and made a thousand stockings for the Community Christmas tree. The members of this auxiliary have voted to adopt a French orphan for the year 1919.

Mr. C. M. Adams, of Statesville, N. C., recently from the Central Machine Gun Training Camp, at Camp Hancock, is now engaged in legal work in connection with the legal offices. Prior to entering the service, Mr. Adams was practicing law in Statesville.

Mr. J. F. Dermid, cousin of Mr. W. D. Dotson, has come to live in Badin, and is working for Mr. Dotson, in the Laboratory. Mr. Dermid was lately honorably discharged from the service. His former home was in Andersonville, S. C.

Mr. McNeely DuBose, of Officers' Training Camp, Camp Humphreys, Va., and Sergeant Pete DuBose, of the S. A. T. C., have both returned to make their home in Badin. The DuBose boys are natives of Asheville, N. C.

Mr. J. L. Kitrell, recently with Erwin Cotton Mills Company, of Durham, N. C., is now in the general office, as secretary to Mr. Wake. Mr. and Mrs. Kitrell and little Mildred Bonner Kitrell are living at 55 Boyden Street.

Mrs. Harry Smith and daughters, the Misses Florence and Olive, have returned from a visit to Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brey, of New York, and Mr. Smith's mother, Mrs. M. Smith, of Kew Gardens.

Mr. Frank M. Fickes, Superintendent of the reclamation department of the for spring purchasing. Mrs. Ray Hanly, of Badin Supply Company Millinery Department, will accompany him.

Mr. E. P. Heinzlerling, from Statesville, N. C., formerly representative of the International Correspondence School, is engaged as computer in the drafting room in the general offices.

Mr. Joe Taylor, who was First Machinist's Mate in the Naval Aviation Department of our service, has returned to Badin, where he expects to stay, having been honorably discharged.

Earle Ferree, formerly of Sprott's Drug Store, who has been in the Navy, on the battleship Massachusetts, has returned to Badin, having been released from service.

Mrs. John N. Dickson and daughter, Rose, have returned from a visit to Knoxville, Tenn., where they were visiting Mrs. Dickson's sister, Mrs. John E. Sterling.

Mrs. F. M. Wagner and daughter, Dorothy, have returned from a prolonged visit to Mrs. Wagner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kircher, of Belleville, Ill.

Miss Florence and Miss Bessie Dent have come from Newnan, Ga., to join the working forces in Badin, in the stenographic department and school, respectively.

Mrs. Clyde Nash reports fifty refugee shirts completed for the Belgians. The members especially faithful in this work were Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Kidd.

The husband of Mrs. R. C. Tripp has arrived from France, and is now in a camp in the North. We hope to welcome him back to Badin very soon.

First Sergeant Charles R. Younts paid a visit to Badin during his last furlough. He is expected to be in Badin permanently in the near future.

Mrs. L. S. Wagner has returned from an extended visit to her relatives in St. Louis. "Wag" is now looking somewhat more cheerful.

Mr. Lenny Myers has left for Baltimore, where he will be employed in electrical work with Mr. F. H. Elmore, Jr.

Mr. James McNeil, of the now famous Marines, made a visit to Badin, where he was warmly welcomed by his many friends.

CHUMS

Aluminum Plant in East St. Louis, Ill., has been a visitor in Badin on business for the past month. He is staying at the Badin Club.

Quite a number of local civilian relief cases have been handled by the Badin Red Cross. If any family of a soldier, white or colored, needs relief, the Red Cross will be glad to help with needed supplies.

Mr. J. F. Manly, of Stanly Clothing Company, is in the northern markets, making his spring purchasing of stock. He reports they will soon have a complete stock of new spring goods.

Thru an oversight, the name of Mrs. T. A. Early was omitted from the Committee of Judges for the Colored Fair. We take pleasure in correcting this error.

Mr. J. W. Frazier will leave on the fifteenth for Baltimore and New York,