A PROCLAMATION

Honor is finer than honesty, as sentiment is higher than thought. There is scant virtue in merely keeping within the law.

"The fear o' hell's a hangman's whip,
To haud the wretch in order;
But where you feel your honor grip,
Let that aye be your border."

In the call to buy Victory Bonds, honor grips hard. To achieve the victory, we pledged our lives, our property, and our sacred honor. The pledge of life has been fully redeemed. The blood cost of victory was paid with solemn pride. To fail or falter in meeting the money cost would immediately brand us with infamy, and ultimately mark us for destruction. Our sacred honor drives us to offer our property as freely as our soldiers offered their lives. They "fought a good fight." We must "keep the faith," or wither in fires of self-contempt.

The Imperial German Government asserted that a solemn obligation was but a scrap of paper; and that government has been consigned to the scrap-heap of civilization. "God is not mocked;" and this nation will surely become as Nineveh and Tyre if we keep back the price of our redemption. No nation can survive that advertises to the world that it holds money dearer than manhood, that while it was willing to sacrifice the only son it cannot spare the firstlings of the flocks.

I beseech all ministers of the Gospel, and all men and women of every class and condition who have faith in the final perseverance of moral values, to enlist in the great Victory Campaign, to the end that our national honor may be redeemed and our destiny secured.

Done at our City of Raleigh, this, the third day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and in the one hundred and forty-third year of our American Independence.

SANTFORD MARTIN
Private Secretary

T. W. BICKETT

OUR HONOR ROLL

Our boys are being rapidly discharged from the military service of our country, and are returning to take their places in the equally important fields of the trades, industries, and professions. So we present herewith a new Honor Roll, which we hope our readers will help us to make and keep correct and complete. It is the roll of former soldiers who are now employed in Badin, both by the Tallassee Power Company and by other businesses.

We keep the first place, however, for our honored dead.
