Canning Club Notes

The Canning Club began work the first of June. At present we have thirty-three members, and a club of children from eleven years up. In this club we have nine little girls who can for their mothers. All the club work has been very interesting this year. In all we have canned:

- 242 No. 3 Cans of Beans.
- 65 No. 2 Cans of Beans.
- 41 Quarts of Beans in glass.
- 11 No. 3 Cans of Apples in glass.
- 3 No. 3 Cans of Okra.
- 6 Quarts of Peaches in glass.
- 11 No. 2 Cans of Peaches.
- 7 No. 3 Cans of Peaches.
- 8 Cans Plums.
- 25 Quarts Blackberries in glass.
- 5 No. 3 Cans of Blackberries.
- 6 No. 2 Cans of Blackberries.

A number of other vegetables have been canned, and pickles, preserves, and jellies have been made.

Cupid Wins Again

Cupid scored another round at the Badin Club House, when Miss Gladys Allsbroke became the bride of Mr. H. A. Lilly. The wedding took place Wednesday, July 9, at 3.30 o'clock. Only relatives and a few friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. E. B. Houser, of the Methodist Church, of which Mr. and Mrs. Lilly are members. The happy couple motored to Mount Gilead, to begin their honeymoon with Mr. Lilly's parents. They returned Tuesday, the fifteenth, and their many friends join in wishing them much happiness.

Birthday Celebration

Miss Josie Chrisco entertained a number of her friends at her home on Cherry Street, Monday evening, the thirtieth ult., the occasion being the seventeenth anniversary of her birth. Many games were played, after which delicious refreshments were served. The following guests were present: Misses Grace Vause, Sallie Jenkins, Nita Bell, Beulah Culp, Custis Melton, Marguerite Beagle, Nora Chrisco, and Edith Chrisco.

Messrs. Robert Bell, Shurl Culp, Sparks, Troutman, and Silas Maynard.

Some Badin Gardens

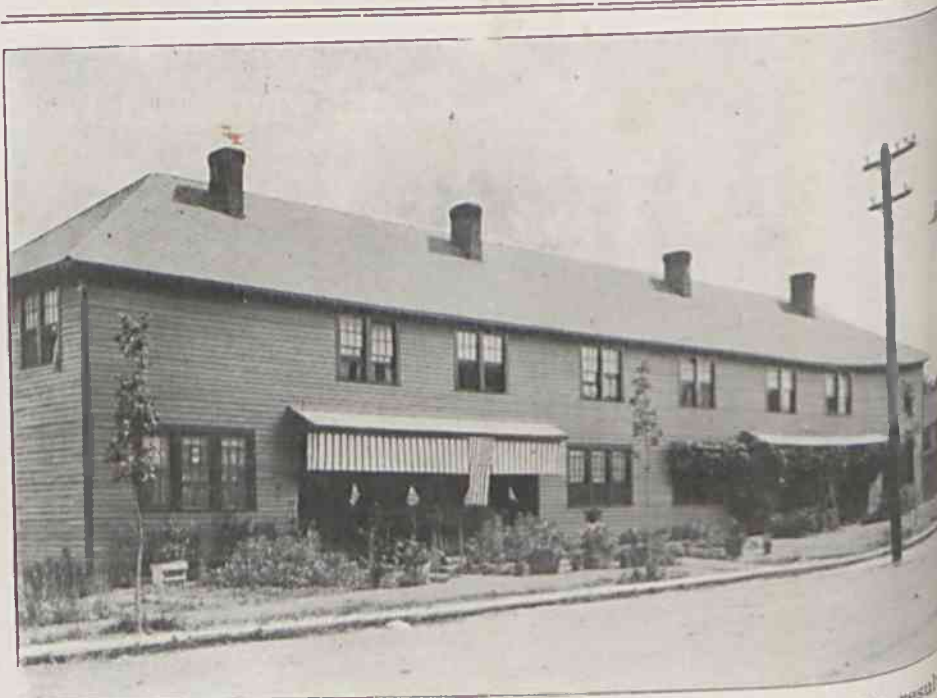

The gardens of Messrs. Lanning, R. C. Leatherwood, and "Dad" Jones, at the intersection of Chestnut and Walnut, are showing excellent results for the work put on them. Mr. Leatherwood's tomatoes and butter beans are especially fine.

The writer had a very pleasant surprise when Mr. Leatherwood took him in and showed him a room, nearly half the floor of which was covered with canned fruits and vegetables. There were eighty-three quarts of blackberries, more than five gallons (various sizes) of jellies, and several gallons of vegetables—all canned by Mrs. Leatherwood in her own kitchen. It was indeed a pleasant sight, and one which spoke eloquently of the busy housekeeper who could find time to accomplish so much in addition to her regular duties.

There are many pretty gardens in Badin, both large and small, some of which have already been mentioned in last month's BULLETIN. Messrs. W. W. Boyte, L. P. Garland, B. S. Arther, Bandy, and S. J. Horton have mighty pretty gardens. Badin gardens are far superior this year to those of last year. Much more is being canned, because there is more than is needed for present home supply. Many of the gardens were hurt somewhat by the continuous rains, but with a little sunshine and work they will soon be all right.

In the past twelve months, more progress has been made in civic than in building construction. The grading of streets, paving of sidewalks, and planting of trees has been followed by the

The occupants of this house have every reason to be proud of the results they have obtained in beautifying their front porches and yards. Mrs. Atkins and Mrs. F. C. Manly are to be congratulated, as well as Mrs. Coleman and Mrs. Burns. Not even this attractive picture gives an adequate idea of the beauty of these porches—that of Mrs. Burns and Mrs. Coleman shaded by the wonderful "Japanese Cudgel" vine, while Mrs. Atkins' and Mrs. Manly's has the awning and a wealth of box plants and flowers. What a variety in yard and on porch—Nasturtiums, verbenas, violets, scarlet sage, touch-me-nots, cosmos, Wandering Jew, umbrella palms, and others which the editor cannot remember.

Again, congratulations, ladies all!
