

RESIDENCE OF MR. AND MRS. C. H. MYERS, NO. 1 ASH STREET

This is one of the prettiest, most "homey-looking" places in our town. It is hardly necessary to say that Mr. and Mrs. Myers are the kind of people every community is glad to have.

Vann-DuBose

On Monday, September 29, at 7.30 p. m., Miss Isabel Vann was married to Mr. McNeely DuBose, at the home of the bride, on Maple Street. Miss Vann is the youngest daughter of Mrs. J. C. Vann, and is one of the best known and most popular of the young women of our town. Mr. DuBose is one of the electrical engineers of the Tallassee Power Company, being assistant to Mr. H. S. Beers, and is greatly admired for his sterling ability and character.

The musical program preceding the ceremony was rendered by Mrs. H. S. Beers. Mrs. H. C. Nash sang "At Dawning," by Cadman.

After a honeymoon in the North Carolina mountains, the happy couple will be at home on Tallassee Avenue.

The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. R. F. Holton, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Beasley, Mrs. T. A. Thornton, Miss Minnie Vann, all of Fayetteville, N. C.; Mrs. R. A. DuBose, Mr. T. C. Avery, Morganton, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McDowell, Rev. and Mrs. Donald Ottmann, Lexington, N. C. Matron of Honor, Mrs. R. F. Holton; Best Man, Mr. R. F. Giersch.

Shower for Miss Vann

On Friday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. T. A. Harris, on Maple Street,

Mesdames H. C. Nash and W. T. Cutchins were joint hostesses at a party in the nature of a "shower," complimentary to Miss Vann, whose marriage to Mr. McNeely DuBose took place on Monday, the twenty-ninth of September. After a unique "Floral Wedding Contest," in which Mrs. H. B. Rhea, a very recent bride, won the prize, a delicious salad course with coffee and hot rolls was served. Following this, little Miss Mildred Nash entered with a market basket of beautiful and useful gifts for Miss Vann.

Another pleasant feature of the afternoon was the music rendered by Mesdames H. F. Smith, Beers, Rhea, and Miss Green.

Those present were: Mesdames Parks, Book, Smith, Beers, Morgan, Sheppard, Thorpe, Bizzell, Hadley, Pannill, Gabriel, Rhea, and Coffman. Misses Bell, Shiffman, Walke, Greene, Robinson, Whitley, Umstead, and Heinzeling.

The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Lessie H. Roberts and little daughter, Francis, of Allen, N. C., who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nash during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolf Leave

Mr. and Mrs. S. Wolf and little daughter Roberta, who have made Albemarle their home for several years, are moving to Badin today. Mr. Wolf will go to and from Badin to attend to his store here, while Mrs. Wolf will have charge of the millinery department of their store at Badin. Mr. and Mrs. Wolf have many friends here who will be sorry to learn that they are leaving the city. —Albemarle News.

We are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Wolf to Badin. They are good citizens, always ready to help a worthy cause and every public enterprise.
