vocal and instrumental soloists and also by the Choral Club, and we can frequently have short talks (a ten minutes limit, say) by our leading men on live topics of these interesting times.

All in favor, say "Aye!" The "Ayes" have it. We appoint Sunday afternoon, November 16, at four o'clock, in the Theater.

Everybody come! We want to begin some Thanksgiving and Christmas songs that everybody can join in and help sing.

A Sidelight

Mrs. Ida Chestnut, of Conway, S. C., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Clifton, at No. 63 Falls Road. Mrs. Chestnut looks upon Badin as one of the garden spots of the world. We admit Badin is a very nice place, and we are proud of it; but of course there are lots of bachelors and widowers here, and being a widow of less than forty it naturally looks good to her.

Charming Sewing Party

Mrs. Harold R. Wake and Mrs. Harry J. Smith were hostesses at a very prettily appointed sewing party, complimentary to Mrs. Lorain Stewart Wagner, on Monday evening, October 20, at the home of Mrs. Wake, on Henderson Avenue. Mrs. Wagner left the following Thursday for her old home, in Belleville, Mo. Among those present at this charming farewell party were Mesdames Pannill, Dotson, Clarke, Turner, Allen, Giersch, Dunham, Smith, Wharton, DuBose, Grandy, Fuller, Book, Parks, Early, Cowart, E. F. Smith, Austin, Garrison, Rainey, Wagner, Thorpe, and Coffman.

An Opportunity

Ladies of Badin, don't fail to join the Home Economics class which will begin at the School House on Friday morning, November 7, at 9.30 o'clock. The very first morning's work as planned is so important that you cannot afford to miss it. This class, if taken advantage of, will mean much to the health and happiness of your homes. It will also help you to lower the cost of living. Let me urge you to make use of this opportunity.

Miss King and Mr. Taylor to Wed in December

The announcement following will be read with much interest, both by people in Albemarle and the many friends of the principals thruout the State:

"Mrs. Ogden D. King announces the engagement of her daughter, Theresa, to Mr. Joseph G. Taylor, of Madison, Wis., the wedding to take place in December."

Miss King is a daughter of the late Dr. Ogden D. King, who was born in Washington, N. C., and spent a goodly part of his youth in Wilmington, N. C. Two sisters of Dr. King—Mrs. James H. Chadborn and Mrs. George D. Parsley—are prominent members of Wilmington society. In his early manhood, Dr. King went to New York, where he practiced medicine for years. Mrs. King was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson Hearne, a brother of Mr. S. H. Hearne, of this place, and was well known as Miss Elizabeth Hearne.

Mr. Taylor, a native of Madison, Wis., has for the past six years made his home in Badin, saving that time he spent in the aviation department of the Naval service. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin.—Albemarle News.
