

Badin Orchestra. It is a ten-piece orchestra made up of picked players from the Band, so chosen as to give a well balanced ensemble. Their playing has plenty of swing and "pep," and they are sure to be in demand not only in Badin but in surrounding towns and cities.

A Real Need

We need a public library in Badin—we must have one. Some of us have been conscious of this for a long time, but there was no suitable place that could be made accessible to the community at large. It now looks as if we have solved that difficulty, and the library must come. Plans are now being put into effect, and by the next issue we can make some definite announcements.

We are glad to report that Mrs. C. H. Myers, of No. 1 Ash Street, who has been in hospital in Charlotte for three weeks for treatment, and has undergone two operations, is now improving very rapidly, and is expected home in a few days.

This is not an elf or fairy, but just Olive Smith herself down in the garden, ready for work

Mr. F. E. Street is having a pleasant time grading, classifying, and inventorying the firebrick which have so long needed attention.

Personal Notes

While Charles Hodley and Henry Wachman were out scalybark hunting at Millertown recently, the former was bitten by a snake. Tho badly frightened, the boy had sufficient presence of mind to suck the poison from the bitten limb, and then hurry to the hospital for treatment. We are glad to say that Charles now shows no bad results from the experience.

Mr. W. H. Russell had a painful accident a few days ago. He was pulling on a large wrench, which slipped off the nut and struck him over the left eye. It was an ugly blow, and laid him off for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Morgan and young son, Earl, Jr., left this week for Atlanta, Ga., where they will make their future home.

Miss Helen Trexler, of Salisbury, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Edward W. Dunham, of Tallassee Avenue, during the past week.

Mr. J. W. Withers, of Atlanta, Ga., is the house guest of his daughter, Mrs. John D. Pannill, of Tallassee Avenue.

Fall is Here

The Fall season is announced these crisp mornings and evenings thru the wonderful colorings of the leaves of the trees as they take on their rich Autumn tints and begin drifting downward.

The advent of Fall is no less proclaimed in every section of our store. It is reflected in the beautiful garments, with their rich hues and trimmings, the gorgeous Ready-to-Wear, with its ever varying shades, in the handsomest Dress Goods and Silks of fine texture and rich shimmering qualities.
