

Spraker, president; Mrs. F. E. Street, treasurer; and Mrs. J. L. Wharton, secretary. Under the leadership of Mrs. Spraker, the Aid looks forward to a year of renewed activity. The Society, this month, meets with Mrs. W. B. Pannill, on Willow Street, Wednesday afternoon, at three p. m.

By the time you get the November issue of THE BULLETIN, the preacher for the next Conference year will be in your midst. He will continue to preach in the Theater Building until the church is completed.

Remember the union prayer service, at Community Building. A great deal of interest is being manifested, and the attendance is on the increase.

Services: Sunday School, 9.45 a. m.; preaching, 11.00 a. m. and 6.30 p. m. You are cordially invited to attend all of the services.

Choir rehearsal every Friday evening, at the home of Mrs. S. J. Horton, 35 Boyden Street.

Presbyterian Church Notes

Recently organized Bible Classes for both men and women were formed. The Brotherhood Bible Class has now about twenty members—Dr. J. F. Campbell, president; Mr. W. I. Stokes, vice-president; Mr. J. A. Ritchie, secretary and treasurer; Rev. T. G. Tate, teacher. The whole class is constituted as a committee to secure additional members. The Woman's Bible Class has elected Mrs. Mable Clark, president, and Mr. W. M. Erwin, teacher.

The church has exchanged the lot on Pine Street for one on the corner of Falls Road and Spruce Avenue, thinking that this would distribute the churches more, and enable them to serve the people more effectively. We hope, by the time this appears, to break ground and begin on the church.

Services will be held in the Community Building as usual, Sunday at 11.00 a. m. and 8.00 p. m.; Sunday School at 10.00 a. m. Prayer meeting at 8.00 p. m. Wednesday; and choir rehearsal, at Mrs. F. Manly's, Friday evenings, at eight p. m. You are cordially invited to all these services.

The third Sunday night in October, a commission from Mecklenburg Presbytery installed the pastor. Rev. Leonard [?], chairman, presided; Rev. Geo. W. [?] preached the sermon; after which Gill charged the pastor, and Elder

J. M. Harris, of Albemarle, charged the people.

Enthusiastic meetings of the Ladies' Aid Society have recently been held at the homes of Mrs. W. S. Spencer and Mrs. Geo. S. Arthur. The ladies are planning to hold a bazaar about Christmas time, to get up funds to help furnish the church.

We are glad to report that progress has been made on all lines during the last month. Our congregations are growing larger, and more interest is being shown in the Sunday School and Prayer Meeting.

The Sunday School will hold its Rally Day exercises the last Sunday night in October. The program will consist of songs, recitations, drills, and a short talk by the pastor.

Choral Club Evening

On Tuesday evening, October 21, the newly organized Choral Club met at the School House for the purpose of electing officers. Before the election, however, a charming impromptu program was rendered by members of the Club, those taking part being Mrs. H. B. Rhea, Misses Mason, Green, and Walker, and Mr. Cummings.

The choosing of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. H. J. Smith; Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Alice McGhee; Music Director, Mr. F. A. Cummings; Accompanist, Miss Lillian Cornish. After the election, a delicious lunch of sandwiches and coffee was served by the ladies.

The following were present: Mesdames Durham, Rhea, Wharton, J. L.; Smith, H. J.; Misses Jennie Bulla, Lilli Bulla, McGhee, Green, Walke, Robinson, Cornish, Mason, and Whitley; Messrs. Liles, Jones, Dermid, Rhinehart, Belk, Dotson, Cummings, Wharton, Burns, Arthur, Williams, Rhea, Rice, and Beers.

The Club expects to announce some interesting musical events in the near future.

The English

Pent in a sea-girt isle, there is the soul of the sea—

Dominant, strong, and deep; steady and grave and free—

Tho the murk of their misty skies May often dim their eyes,

They can see to fight in the blackest night

For the cause of Liberty.

Well for the weal of the world that their will holds like the rock!

Well for our land at ease when they bore the battle shock!

Ah, we who dwell in the sun,

Where the mingling rivers run,

May serve our race with a lighter grace,

Yet boast of our parent stock.

Summed by a critic eye, their faults and their failings mount;

(Even may be the score with ours, in the long account!)

But they bear the Word of God

Wherever their foot has trod,

And they teach the weak of the world to seek

For wisdom at the fount.

Liberty laughed one day, with Magna Charta sealed.

Craving the whole wide earth, she claimed her an English field;

And she ruled there from that day

With a wider, wider sway,

And her light shone out on the lands about,

And the world's hope was revealed.

Legion have been her foes, folly and greed and pride,

Hunger of pomp and power, and a hundred things beside.

But the English, even as we,

Have striven to be free;

If they scorn one thing, 'tis the headstrong King

Who drove us from their side!

Taught by his wild mistakes, they have learned their lesson well.

Ask if their rule be light! Their colonies will tell.

Ask if their cause be loved!

Africa even has proved!

Then cast one glance on the fields of France

Where the slaughtered Anzacs fell!

That which we love, they love; that which they hate, we hate.

Weak was the riven tie, but strong is the bond of fate,

And it binds us each to each

With a tie of common speech,

And our common ward, where we stand on guard,

O'er Freedom's vast estate!

W. J. Nuebling, who has been spending a several weeks' vacation in the North, is expected in Badin very soon. "Nueb" has been greatly missed by the General Office men, who will be glad to see him again.
