

THE MATRIMONIAL BACILLUS IS ACTIVE—EVEN ON THE LAKE

Jones-Sibley

A wedding that will prove of interest, and will come as a surprise to the many friends of the groom here, occurred in Rockingham, S. C., on Christmas Eve, at eight o'clock, when Miss Juanita Sibley of that city became the bride of Mr. Robert Jones, of Badin. The wedding was a quiet affair, only a few of the friends and relatives of the couple being present.

Mr. Jones has been in Badin since returning from France, and is now operating at the Falls power house. He is a young man of promising future, and has many friends in Badin.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will make their home on Falls Hill, in Badin.

Gilbert-Powlas

The home of Mrs. Maggie V. Powlas, in Hickory, N. C., was the scene of a pretty wedding, when on December 12 Miss Mabel Powlas became the wife of Mr. Charles B. Gilbert, both of Badin. Only the family and closest personal friends were invited. The reception hall was beautifully decorated with holly, in keeping with the holiday season. Before the ceremony, Miss Esther Schultze, of Lenoir College Faculty, sang "Because." Miss Pauline Cauble played the wedding march. Rev. O. W. Aderholdt, a brother-in-law of the bride, and pastor of the Lutheran Church at Crouse, N. C., performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. T. G. Tate, of Badin, N. C. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert left for Asheville and points in South Carolina.

Miss Powlas held a responsible position with the Tallassee Power Company, and has a wide circle of friends and admirers. Mr. Gilbert is assistant cashier of the Bank of Badin, and is a young man of sterling qualities and bright future. Their friends wish for them a happy life together.

New Year's Dance

On New Year's Eve, there was a very pleasant dance in the Theater Building. In addition to a large crowd of Badinites, quite a number of visitors were present.

Just before midnight, horns, whistles, and other noise-making machines made their appearance, and Nineteen Hundred and Twenty was given a rousing welcome.

The dance proved to be one of the most enjoyable of the season, lasting until 1.00 a. m. The Badin color orchestra furnished the music for the occasion.

Personal Items

Mr. John D. Shaver, formerly of Badin, now working with the Bethlehem Steel Company, Spear's Point, Mo., spent the Christmas holidays with his parents, at 123 Falls Road. Mr. Shaver expects to return to Badin in the spring, bringing his wife with him, and will build a home on the lot which he owns at 138 Falls Road.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Giersch left for the thirtieth ultimo for Atlanta, Ga., and after a few days there with friends and relatives they will go on to Maryville, Tenn., Mr. Giersch having been transferred to Alcoa, the Company's plant in Tennessee. Their many friends will miss them, and wish them the best of luck in their new place.

Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Shaver, of Salisbury, are guests at the home of Mr. A. G. Moore, on Nantahala Street. Dr. Shaver will be the successor of Dr. Rainey, who leaves Badin in March to assume charge of a large hospital at Fayetteville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Coffman have returned from a visit to Knoxville, Tenn., and East St. Louis, Mo. Mrs. Coffman spent several very pleasant days in Knoxville with her friend, Mrs. J. Dickson.

Mrs. R. A. DuBose, and her sons, S. Pierre and John, of the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. McNeely DuBose on Tallassee Avenue.

Mr. Chris Chokos has sold his interest in the New York Cafe, and will open a restaurant in Sumter, S. C. Chris has many friends here, who will regret his leaving.

Mrs. O. T. Moore, of Danville, Va., has been visiting her son and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Moore, on Nantahala Avenue.

Good Things Every Day in The Year

Our famous Bread, Cakes, and Pies cannot be surpassed.
We also have Fresh Candies and other "Goodies."

BADIN BAKERY - - Badin, N. C.
PETER ENDRES, Proprietor

GLASSES vs. EYESTRAIN

If your sight is impaired, you need and should wear glasses—at once. I furnish the glasses.

Repair and fit them perfectly

F. E. STARNES ALBEMARLE, N. C.