

Messrs. Agle, Herman Bell, Bud Coffman, and George Coleman. Everyone knows they can eat. There were no twelve basketfuls left. In fact, we think they could have eaten more, especially cake, but you all know the sugar situation.

Mr. and Mrs. Neubling Leave

Mrs. Harry J. Smith entertained Saturday afternoon with two tables of bridge. Only the immediate friends of Mrs. W. J. Neubling were present as it was given in her honor. Mr. and Mrs. Neubling and small daughter, Dorothy, left Monday for East St. Louis, where they expect to make their home. The Neublins have lived in Badin a long time and leave many friends who regret their absence.

Boy Scouts on Hike

Friday the Boy Scouts went on a hike to Whitney. Rev. Mr. Tate, the scoutmaster, reports a most instructive and enjoyable time as well as all the boys who attended. The Badin Boy Scouts Troop No. 2 have built themselves a club house in Holly Park which does them and the town credit.

The Craigs Visit Friends in Badin

Mrs. J. O. Craig and little daughter, Eva Woodburn, came from Salisbury to spend the week end, April 22, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Wake. Several small social functions were given in honor of Mrs. Craig during her short visit here.

Mrs. T. G. Tate is visiting friends in Nashville, Tenn.

Social and Personal

On Saturday evening Mr. Craig joined his wife here, and remained over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Aiken Moore gave a dinner party Saturday night followed by two tables of bridge. Those participating were Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Wake, and the host and hostess.

Mrs. Herman Bell, of Spruce Street, gave a dance the past week complimentary to her daughter, Bessie, of New Bern, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bell. Miss Bell has returned to New Bern, where she makes her home with her grandparents.

Saturday evening, May 1, Mrs. Clarence W. Coffman of Henderson Avenue entertained informally with two tables of "bridge" complimentary to Mrs. J. T. Kennedy, of Newark, N. J., who is the house guest of Mrs. Lawrence G. Daniels of Henderson Avenue.

Mrs. Henry Jenkins gave a birthday party the past week to celebrate the ninth anniversary of little Miss Alberta's birth. Games entertained the young folks and refreshments were served and all wished the young lady many happy returns of the day.

Thursday afternoon, April 22, the Auction Bridge Club met with Mrs. Wake. Mrs. Craig, who was a member of the Club during her residence in Badin, was the guest of honor. A salad course, with iced tea, was served.

Mrs. R. C. Platt was the house guest of her sister, Mrs. R. C. Bizzell of Maple Street. Mrs. Platt is from Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Virginia Howell of Tallassee Avenue celebrated her sixth birthday in her home in company with her many small friends. Miss Sallie Walke, our successful kindergarten teacher entertained the young people.

Mrs. W. B. Fuller gave a "bridge" Tuesday evening, complimentary to Mrs. J. T. Kennedy of Newark, N. J. Those present were Mesdames Fuller and Fuller, Jr., Daniels, Pannill, Turner, Clarke, and Kennedy.

Miss Evelyn Pannill of Willow Street celebrated her fifth birthday this week. A huge birthday cake with five candles was the center of attraction. Her band of little friends wished her many happy returns of the day.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. Turner at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Darrell Clark, on Tallassee Avenue, Thursday afternoon. After the quilting was finished refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. H. Spraker entertained Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Young's sister, Miss Sally, who is visiting her from Georgia. A splendid musical program was given. Mrs. Clyde Nash and Miss Sally sang.

Miss Walke is to become the bride of Mr. B. S. Liles on June 23 and it is safe to say there will be weeping if not gnashing of teeth among all our little people under six years of age.

Mrs. R. L. Miller entertained her Sunday school class Tuesday afternoon. The little folks comprise the primary class of the Methodist Sunday school. Everyone had a very happy afternoon.

Mrs. Lawrence G. Daniels entertained Wednesday evening with a bridge party complimentary to her houseguest, Mrs. J. T. Kennedy, of Newark, N. J.

Mr. Ellison spent Sunday in Greensboro.

Yadkin Motor Company

REPAIRS BATTERY SERVICE

TIRES AND ACCESSORIES

PLEASURE CARS AND TRUCKS

ALBEMARLE AND BADIN