The Game between Badin and Atlanta

The Sluggers went out against one of the best teams that has come to Badin, on Monday, the fourteenth. The Veterans, knowing the battle they had before them, went out upon the diamond full of assurance that they would win the victory. Many spectators witnessed the game, both white and colored, probably the largest crowd of the season.

Alonzo Simmons, who is indeed an artist in the box, delivered the ball to the catcher, for certainly the Atlanta boys failed to see it. Simmons can baffle the best of batters with his wonderful skill of hand and his excellent head work.

Pearlie Lloyd, who came to us as a third baseman, caught the ball from Simmons at this game. The speed with which he delivered the pill to second base caused it to sing that little JAZZ, "There Ain't Gwine Be No Stealin' Done."

Furman Dawkins, better known as White Rabbit, played first base in this game. White Rabbit has his old strength this year. He pitched a ball in the game between Concord and Badin which at all times sang the Snakey Blues, and resulted in a shut out for Concord.

Will Lovejoy, better known as Green, played commendable ball on second, and also Green did not fail to make the willow come in contact with the pill every time he faced the pitcher.

Michael, better known as Connie, played his usual position in short, and in the genesis of the game he met the grapevine curl of Atlanta's pitcher, which resulted in the spectators losing sight of the pill, which landed at the top of the left field fence.

Rob Weldon played with accuracy, and his wonderful skill with the stick in the fourth inning, which caused two scores to come in for Badin, made the sideline fans lose heart, and stop betting on the "Buzzards" from the Empire State, and turn their bets to the Tukoes of Turpenite, or Tarheelia.

Curtis Tolbert, better known as Kid Monday, played left field, and in the sixth inning made himself noticed by getting an impossible one, which bade fair to be a parked ball.

Will Threadgill, who should be called "Crip," played center field with the same ease he plays the Jo-GO Blues on the piano. Crip startled the "Buzzards" with his power to use the slat either left or right handed.

Will Reid, who should be known as "Home-Run Bill," covered every foot of ground between the right field fence and the sign advertising The Main Pharmacy. Home-Run Bill never strikes out, generally hits, and often places the pill on the outside of the fence.

Badin made nine scores in this game, while the boys from the Empire State barely eased in one.

The game between High Point and Badin which was played in High Point on last Saturday, resulted in Badin losing to High Point by a score of seven to three.

The game between Rockingham and Badin, on Monday, the sixth, was the most interesting of the season. The score was three and two in favor of Rockingham all through the game from the third inning until the ninth, when the Badin boys made two more scores by an error of the first baseman on Rockingham's team. The game went up 4 and 3 in favor of Badin.

On Tuesday, Badin again played Rockingham, and beat them by a score of 15 and 3. Simmons pitched the first game; White Rabbit pitched the second.

Wednesday and Thursday, the sixteenth and seventeenth, the Sluggers went against the strongest team in the State, and by some very costly errors they lost two games to the Pond Giants, on the Winston League baseball diamond. We are glad, however, to have the consolation that we have beaten the Pond Giants this year.

Church News

Mr. W. F. DeBardeleben was a visitor in the various Sunday Schools of Badin on last Sunday. Mr. DeBardeleben organized a Sunday School Teachers' Training Class on last Monday night, and elected the following named officers: Rev. W. R. Parker, President; Mrs. John Barringer, Secretary; Mr. John Graham, Treasurer. Membership committee: Miss Lelia Kendall, Mr. John Graham, and Miss Luvester Marable.

Mr. G. E. Nelson, Teacher.

The following named persons have enrolled their names as members of the teacher training class: Mr. Andrew Rollins, Mrs. Ada James, Mrs. Laura Pierce, Rev. Coble, Mrs. Lillie Cochran, Professor and Mrs. Armstrong, and Mr. and Mrs. Pierson.

Let everybody remember the Bible training class which meets every Monday night. "Do you know a book that you are willing to put under your head for a pillow when you lie dying? Very well; that is the book you want to study while you are living. There is but one such book in the world."

Last Sunday night was the beginning of the revival services which are being held at the A. M. E. Zion Church during this week. The different congregations listened to some very inspiring sermons during the week of revival services, from some very able-bodied ministers.

A very large audience attended the service at the A. M. E. Zion Church last Sunday night, to hear Rev. Frazier preach on: "The Dry Bones in the Valley."
