

July 24, to be away for two weeks. It is not known just who will vacate when he returns, but we rather think W. H. Bradford will, as he has asked for his vacation in August.

A Panama hat was seen on the streets of Badin, July 24, and upon investigation it was found to be covering Mr. G. C. Truesdale. What's the idea? Mrs. Truesdale is away visiting friends in South Carolina.

A long face is being worn by Mr. O. B. Lackey. What's the trouble? The graveyard shift August 1.

Mr. J. E. Crow has moved from 53 Cedar Street to 149 Pine.

Falls Notes

We hope Mr. Barnette did not get offended at the remark that appeared in the last BULLETIN concerning his little "Red Racer." We know Mr. Rodgers is sorry it hasn't a self-starter, for while cranking it the other morning he received a violet blow on the jaw. Since then he has had to make several trips to the Hospital.

We hear that Tom Jackson had the three-room house painted according to his own taste. We don't know what all this means, but hope a new neighbor.

The painters sure have made a great improvement on the houses here. We almost feel like we are living in a new neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jones are spending their vacation at home, in Rock Hill, S. C. They are expected to return next week.

Miss Maye Williams has returned to her home in Charlotte, after a week's visit to her brother, C. W. Williams.

Mrs. Ike Roberts will leave this week for her home in Rock Hill, S. C., on account of the illness of her father.

Mr. Shoemaker is on double duty lately. Working in the station, and making a new Maxwell out of his old one.

Mr. Mintz is quite busy these days, working on the graveyard shift and helping his wife can tomatoes.

Mrs. Lee, from Fort Mill, S. C., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hoagland.

Rotary Station

Mr. B. J. May has departed for Wrightsville Beach for a well-earned vacation. This is B. J.'s first trip to the ocean, so we will have an entire change of program when he gets back.

Ward is busy these days converting one of our little 2500 kilowatts converters into a nice peaceable little generator.

R. A. McIntyre's father gave him a "flivver." Two weeks later: R. A. Mc-Intyre gave his father a flivver.

Mr. B. B. Venters spent a few days with his brother, who is seriously ill in a sanatorium at Wilmington.

Molasses, mush, or mud, it's all the same to Mr. DuBose, when it comes to a liquid for a hydraulic press.

Mr. Ed. Harker is away on his vacation. Wonder if there will be two mouths to feed when he returns?

R. S. McConnell says his chickens ought to be good soldiers—they are so full of "cooties."

Five amperes reward for the return of the Rotary Station cat.

"Dick" Hardin is saving up Arbuckle Signatures, to get a bicycle.

What's the matter Burns, toothache? No; Brown's Mule.

Machine Shop Notes

"Bolts and Jolts"

Mr. Frank Sells has quit operating the locomotive crane, and Mr. M. S. Ragsdale, our rigger foreman, will become operator. Mr. J. F. Lyerly will take Mr. Ragsdale's place as rigger foreman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bolton have gone to housekeeping, and will soon be at home to their friends on Maple Street. Many pleasant days, John; and may there be "No place like home."

The "Lucille" boat is now housed up for the sixteenth coat of paint, and to be overhauled. She will be painted appropriate to blend with the water of the beautiful Lake Tallassee.

Mr. T. L. Chambers tells us that he will be a "bachelor" for a while now. His wife and children will visit in Knoxville, Tenn., for a month. We will keep an eye on Tom.

We wish to express our deepest sympathy to Mr. D. M. Perry and wife,
