Public Invited to Visit Navy Hall Tomorrow

Navy Hall, the new Pre-Flight building on Country Club Road directly behind Stacy Dormitory, will be open for inspection by the public from 1400 to 1700 tomorrow, it was announced during the past week by Comdr. John P. Graff, USN (Ret.), Commanding Officer of the Pre-Flight School.

Top ranking officers of the station are scheduled to be on hand to greet the guests. University officials, students, and townspeople are cordially invited to inspect the building.

Navy Hall contains public lounge rooms on the main floor for the use of Cadets, their families and friends. The main room is furnished with red, brown and green leather upholstered chairs and divans. A large open fireplace is at each end of the room.

One of the wings is provided with game tables, while the opposite wing is occupied by the Public Relations Department, which maintains an information desk near the main entrance of the building for the convenience and assistance of all visitors. Navy Hall has been designated by the Commanding Officer as the official visitors' entrance to the Pre-Flight School, and all cadets are requested to notify their visitors of this arrangement and instruct them to call at Navy Hall when they wish to come on the station.
