Easter Sunday, the most significant day in the Christian calendar year, signifying Life, Hope and Victory, will be celebrated this Sunday. To many, it is going to be the first time away from home. To many, it will be the first time they will not have the opportunity to sit with their families in the Church of their choice back home. All in all, it will be a different experience for many.

But the celebration of Easter has not changed. The bases upon which the celebration of Easter are justified are more real, more meaningful, more practical than ever before in our lives. Now, many of us for the first time, are able to see and realize what generation upon generation of Christians have seen and experienced throughout the ages. To us it is an opportunity to re-consecrate and re-dedicate ourselves anew to a greater Life, greater Hope and greater Victory.

Catholic Easter Services

Special services to commemorate the Resurrection of Christ will be held in Hill Music Hall Easter Sunday at 1000.

A Solemn Military High Mass will be celebrated by the Rev. Edward Sullivan, civilian chaplain of the Pre-Flight School. The other officials will be: Deacon, Rev. Ambrose Gallagher of Belmont Abbey, N. C.; Subdeacon, Rev. Aloysius Adler of Raleigh. The Master of Ceremonies will be Cadet Goldsmith, while Cadet Joseph Gallagher will act as censer-bearer. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Ambrose Gallagher.

Preceding the Mass a procession, headed by the Cross-bearer, and composed of a Cadet Guard of Honor and the officers of the Mass, will form in the Choral Room and advance to the altar in Hill Music Hall.

The Catholic Cadet Choir, directed by Cadet John Criste, will sing for the solemn occasion.

The 0615 Mass on Easter will also be celebrated in Hill Music Hall.

Former Member of Waring's Band Now Pre-Flight Cadet

He's had on a dozen different uniforms, but he likes the drab unadorned khaki he's wearing now best of all. Naval Aviation Cadet Paul Owen, 23rd Battalion, for five years was tenor soloist with Fred Waring's orchestra - glee club. Recently he had his own program over NBC, and was doing some modeling for Powers on the side, "because all the good looking fellows had already gone into the service," he says.

CADET OWEN

Just prior to entering the Navy, he was pictured for one advertisement in the uniform of an Army Air Forces captain, and in another he posed as a Navy lieutenant receiving the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Cadet Owen is a member of the Pre-Flight Glee Club here.

Mrs. Fink Leaves Station

Mrs. T. R. Fink, one of the first employees at this station, left her position here as secretary to the Commanding Officer last week, moving to Ithaca, N. Y.

Two Officers Detached

Two officers were detached from this Pre-Flight School during the past week: Lieut. (jg) George F. Brown, USNR, who has been handling special details in the athletic department, was detached for duty outside the country, and Lieut. (jg) James F. Lalanne, USNR, platoon officer, was transferred to the Navy CAA War Training School for flight instructors, Bloomsburg, Pa.

New Cadet Officers Selected

New cadet regimental officers selected from members of the 19th Battalion are as follows: C. A. H. Reckerdres, of Yonkers, N. Y., regimental commander; R. L. Zorn, of Botkins, O., regimental sub-commander; E. S. Swanson, Jr., of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., regimental adjutant, and R. L. Sullivan, of Ithaca, N. Y., regimental petty officer.

Weekend Hostesses at Navy Hall

Miss Jane Leonard will serve as hostess at Navy Hall Saturday afternoon, while Mrs. D. A. Mangel will be on duty there Sunday.

All Pre-Flight cadets with dates will be admitted free to the University's Interdormitory dance tonight.
