CLOUD BUSTER

Vol. 2—No. 1

U. S. Navy Pre-Flight School, Chapel Hill, N. C.

Saturday, September 18, 1943

To Teach New Pre-Flight Course

Movie Schedule

Sept. 18—Free movie at Village Theatre, "Dr. Gillespie's New Assistant," with Lionel Barrymore. Show starts at 1555, 1940 and 2118. Complete show one hour, 36 minutes.

Sept. 19—Free movie at Village Theatre, "Andy Hardy's Double Life" with Mickey Rooney. Show starts at 1318 and 1501.

Personnel Changes

Lieutenant Robert D. Robinson, USNR, Drill Master, was detached this week from this station and is to proceed to San Francisco, Commandant twelfth Naval district, and from there will report to Commander, Fleet Air, South.

Robert George Harris, SM2c, reports to the NACSB at Dallas, Texas.

"Self-Preservation" Becomes Part of Pre-Flight Training

Last Saturday morning Lieut. George D. Kepler, USNR, and Ensigns John and Frank Craighead, USNR, took some 600 cadets and a group of visiting newspapermen some five miles out from Chapel Hill and gave them some first hand instruction in the newest wrinkle in Pre-Flight training—"Self-Preservation."

The three officers had just returned to Chapel Hill from Washington.

Carmine Gagliardi To Present Concert On Campus Tonight

Technical Sergeant Carmine Gagliardi, former soloist on the Ford Sunday Evening Hour, will present a special concert for all military units on the campus tonight at 2000 in Memorial Hall. The public is invited.

Sponsored by the University YMCA, the program should appeal greatly to the many Gagliardi followers in Chapel Hill.

Technical Sergeant Gagliardi is considered one of the greatest tenors of our time. He has been sponsored by Sir Thomas Beecham, the noted British conductor, and

The Craigheads had been there for some time, Lt. Kepler for the past three weeks. Just completed is a book by the Craigheads on "Self-Preservation." But more about that later, let's talk about the trip last Saturday morning.

Just as soon as the party arrived at its destination the Craigheads had the entire group amazed at their thorough knowledge of the outdoors.

Young John cut a grape vine, and from a section of the limb about two yards long had good drinking water dropping so steadily that he passed it around and a half-dozen onlookers caught enough to fill a cup. No one should die of thirst in the jungles, the Craigheads say.

Another fascinating exhibition was the making of a fishing line

Commendation

To: Staff of the Cloudbuster

1. On the occasion of the first anniversary edition of the Cloudbuster, I extend to you the congratulations of myself and the entire Command. This fine periodical has recorded, week by week, the progress and the activities of this Pre-Flight School, and has been an outstanding factor in building and maintaining high morale on the station.
2. The hard and intelligent work of the editor and staff has developed the Cloudbuster and has made it worthy of a creditable place among service papers. Splendid imagination and resourcefulness have ever been apparent in this publication.
3. Officers, enlisted personnel, cadets, and civil service employees have worked to make the Cloudbuster what it is today, and the whole Station appreciates the accomplishments of the present staff as well as the fine contributions made by officers and cadets who have been transferred to other activities.

JOHN P. GRAFF
Commander, U.S.N. (Ret.)
