Georgia Pre-Flighters Invade Chapel Hill

Cadets And Band Assist In Navy Day Program At Raleigh

One thousand cadets and the Pre-Flight band will take part in the 22nd annual celebration of Navy Day to be observed in Raleigh, N. C., next Wednesday, it is announced by Comdr. John P. Graff, USN (Ret.), Commanding Officer.

The cadets and band members will join in on the parade scheduled to begin at 1530 at State College and proceed down Raleigh streets to the City Auditorium.

Principal speaker for the occasion will be Lt. Comdr. Clarence E. Dickinson, Jr., USN, who has played an outstanding role in the major air battles of the war in the Pacific. He is the No. 1 Navy Ace and has a message for all those vitally interested in the Navy and naval aviation.

Cadet Open House

An open house will be held Sunday afternoon from 1600 to 1800 at McIver Dormitory. All cadets are invited to attend.

Kenan Stadium Site of Game Starting at 1430

One of the better football games for Chapel Hill this fall will be reeled off in Kenan Stadium this afternoon at 2:30 when the rejuvenated Cloudbusters engage Georgia's Pre-Flight Skycrackers.

The visitors will take the field heavy favorites to defeat the Cloudbusters. Their season record of but one loss in three starts, along with their advantage in both weight and speed, give them at least a two touchdown advantage. However, the locals showed vast improvement last Saturday by defeating undefeated Camp Davis, 23 to 18, and in a football game anything can and does happen.

Lieut. Frank Kimbrough, USNR, head football coach, has made several minor changes over the past week in preparation for today's game. Cadet Paul Hart, who has seen considerable service in previous games at quarterback, is expected to start at center, and
