Cloudbusters Play Wake Forest in Stadium

Visitors Possess One of Strongest Teams in State

Still the decided underdog the Pre-Flight Cloudbusters engage the Demon Deacons from Wake Forest College in Kenan Stadium this afternoon at 1430.

The visitors, possessing one of the finest offensive teams in the nation, have scored 116 points in their last three games while holding the opposition to 18.

Their season record is three wins in six games, but the three losses, to Camp Davis, Maryland, and Georgia, were all by very close margins.

Maryland, for example, defeated the Deacons in the final 10 seconds of play on a 70-yard run.

Roasted peanuts, that were raised in the Pre-Flight Victory Garden, will be given to the cadets free at the soft drink stand of the cadet store anytime before the football game this afternoon.

They were nosed out by Georgia, 7 to 0, and Camp Davis beat the Deacs, 20-19, in the 1943 opener.
