

They Compose The 49th Cadet Regimental Staff

NEW MEMBERS of the cadet regimental staff chosen from members of the 49th Battalion are pictured above, left to right: T. W. Rathbone, regimental commander; H. B. Scott, regimental sub-commander; Russell R. Harmon, regimental adjutant; Bernard Villar, regimental commissary officer.

50th Battalion Leads in Military With Mark of 3.76

In Military the 50th Battalion is at present leading with an overall mark of 3.76, while the 51st is second with 3.71.

With a mark of 3.62, the 48th is in third place, and the 52nd is fourth with 3.61. In last place is the 49th with a mark of 3.36.

D-Day Vespers

As a part of the nationwide observance of D-Day, special vesper services for Pre-Flight School personnel were held in Emerson Stadium last Tuesday evening.

Chaplain George W. Cummins led the assembly of cadets, officers, and crew in prayer for servicemen participating in the European invasion.

—Coming Up—

Today at 1600:

Cherry Point Marines vs. Pre-Flight in baseball at Cherry Point.

Wednesday at 1930:

BTC 10, Greensboro, vs. Pre-Flight in baseball at Greensboro.

Saturday at 1600:

Maxton Air Base vs. Pre-Flight in baseball on Emerson Field.

Sunday, June 18th, at 1500:

Camp Davis vs. Pre-Flight in baseball on Emerson Field.

THE FIRST PARTY for the new Pre-Flight band was given by the Welfare and Recreation Office at the band quarters on Friday, June 2. It was a formal dinner followed by dancing, and spiced with lively entertainment furnished by the bandsmen themselves. Heading the committee in charge of arrangements for the affair was C. L. P. Francois, Mus2c.

The bottom picture shows the band's glee club entertaining between courses of the dinner, while the top photo was snapped during informal moments that followed.

48th Sets Pace In Athletics

Only three cadets failed to make the grade for the 48th in Athletics as that battalion won the first week of competition with a percentage of 98.27.

In second place was the 49th with four failures and 97.66. The 51st came next with five failures and 96.89, and the 50th was fourth with 95.07. In last place was the 52nd with a percentage total of 92.30. The 50th had seven failures, while the 52nd had 12.

Academic Lead Held by 48th

With a percentage total of 92.94, the 48th Battalion set the pace in Academics for the week ending June 3.

Slightly over four percentage points behind and in second place was the 52nd with 88.51, while the 50th was third with 86.28. The 51st had 85.09, and the 49th brought up the rear with 81.97.

SPORTS

(Continued from page three)

Cadet Rathbone of the 49th, with a time of 22.5, bettered Cadet Shidle's time of 22.7. The latter was a member of the 43rd Battalion.

The other swimming record to be broken was in the 200 Meter Free Style relay. The 49th was also the victor in this event, the time being 1:40.2.

Track records broken included the Medley Relay which was won by Johnson, Williams, Kennedy and Caetano of the 50th Battalion; the X-Country won by Caetano of the 50th, and the obstacle race won by Boyer, also of the 50th.

The time in the Medley Relay was 3:55, while the old mark was 3:56. In the X-Country Caetano bettered his own time of 9:55 to 9:37.4, and in the obstacle race Cadet Boyer's time of 2:52 bettered Cadet Winsor's time of 2:53.

MARINES

(Continued from page three)

the way on two successive long flies to the outfield.

Falk produced the second Cloudbuster run in the eighth with a round tripper down the right field line.

Score by innings:	R	H	E
CHERRY POINT	010	001	102-5	10 0 1
PRE-FLIGHT	001	000	010-2	6 0 1