47 Officers Receive Survival Instruction Here

A group of 47 Naval and Coast Guard officers, including six from this station, comprise the second class now receiving special instruction in the survival program here. A group of 39 officers completed the first course here on July 29.

Lieut. Stuart Brewbaker, USNR, of the Navy Pre-Flight School, Athens, Ga., is Officer-in-Charge of the two weeks' course, assisted by three local officers, Lieut. G. D. Kepler, Lt. (jg) John Craighead, and Lt. (jg) Frank C. Craighead.

Band To Give 5th Concert Tomorrow

The fifth concert of the season, which was cancelled last Sunday because of special memorial services for Dr. Frederick Koch, of the University of North Carolina, will be given by the Navy Pre-Flight School band tomorrow at 1630 in the Forest Theatre.

The program will be the same as printed in last week's CLOUD-BUSTER.

Crew Picnic Next Saturday

A picnic for all enlisted men and WAVES will be held next Saturday afternoon starting at 1700 at the Chapel Hill Country Club.

The evening meal will be served at approximately 1830, and music will be provided by the Pre-Flight School band.

Lt. Comdr. Gilday Detached

LT. COMDR. JOHN F. GILDAY, USNR (left), last week turned over his duties as Officer-in-Charge, Cadet Regiment, to Lt. Comdr. Edmund M. Waller, USNR.

Lt. Comdr. Gilday, who headed the Nomenclature and Recognition course here prior to taking charge of the Military Department last March, had served at this station since May, 1942. His new administrative assignment is in welfare and recreation work, Bureau of Naval Personnel, Washington, D. C.

Lt. Comdr. Waller reported here from Washington, D. C.

Outdoor Dance To Be Held Tonight For Entire Station

An all-station dance for the cadet regiment, officers, and enlisted personnel will be held on the outdoor basketball courts in back of Navy Hall tonight from 2100 to 2400.

Music will be furnished by the Pre-Flight School band, with Drummer William K. Chapman featured on the vocals. Refreshments will be served throughout the evening.

Liberty for the cadets will be extended to 0030, with taps coming at 0045.

In event of rain, the dance will be shifted to Woollen gym.

Navy Bond Purchases Reach New Peak in July

Breaking all previous records, War Bond purchases by Navy personnel during July totalled $78,587,569. This figure topped by a considerable margin the former high mark of $57,021,654, set last December, and brought the grand total since the inauguration of the Navy bond program in October, 1941, to $703,002,352.

The July total was an increase of 186.7% over the $27,783,065 for the corresponding month in 1943.

Of the July sales, $49,038,810 were cash purchases, $17,513,496 were sales to civilian personnel under the payroll savings plan, and $12,035,263 were allotment purchases by uniformed personnel.

Need For Veteran Linemen Worries Cloudbuster Coaches

The status quo of the Cloudbuster football team didn't change during the past week as the 50-odd candidates donned heavy equipment for the first time.

It was the same old story just as Head Mentor Glenn Killinger stated a week ago: The backfield looks great. Some close observers are predicting it to be the finest to wear Cloudbuster colors. But the line continues to be a problem, and you don't win football games unless you have the men up front to lead the way.

Thursday saw the arrival of the 59th Battalion, but as yet its potentialities are unknown. Coach Killinger is looking especially for some guards and tackles, some boys who will be able to hold their own against such teams as the Naval Academy, Duke, and the Bainbridge Training Station.

The end spots, at this writing, are in good hands. Warren Anderson, the captain-elect at Colgate this year, and Richard Sheehan, who played freshman ball at the University of Missouri, are still the top candidates. And at center there is Gene Flick who was all-conference at that position at the University of Minnesota. But the guards and tackles are unsettled, and any of the 12 or 14 men
