Buster Grid Squad Shows Good Team Spirit In Workouts

As the Cloudbuster squad went to work this week to iron out the usual early season flaws, Lt. Comdr. Paul Bryant, head coach, indicated he is well pleased with the team spirit and enthusiasm shown in the practice sessions and in the scrimmage held last Saturday. The fine team spirit, he said, is especially encouraging in view of the interruptions last week by the rainy weather and peace celebration.

Backs who showed well in the week-end scrimmage include Jimmy Allen, from Nashville, Tenn., whose good all around play included several long runs; J. B. Gregg, from Monroe, La. who scampered more than 90 yards for a touchdown; Harry Bonk, 195-pound fullback from Coram, N. Y., whose downfield blocking attracted attention; Vic Turyn, Holden, W. Va., who con-tributed good quarterbacking and ball handling, and J. R. Del Signore, McKeesport, Pa., whose defensive play was outstanding.

Others who looked good in the scrimmage were:

At the end positions, Francis Evans, Springfield, Mass., F. J. Schultz, Groesbeck, Tex., Robert Crosland, Punta Gorda, Fla., Bill Wilkins, Little Rock, Ark., R. N. Chase, Hamilton, Mo., N. G. Harris, and L. J. Morter, Baldwin, N. Y.

At the tackles, Bernie Winkler, Temple, Tex., H. M. Cowart, New Orleans, La., Ed Jackson, Augusta, Ga., Gene Kinney, Louisville, Ky., and Joseph Drach, Cheltenham, Pa.

At the guard spots, Edward Schwarz, Erie, Pa., Richard Johnson, Orlando, Fla., and John Murphy, New York City.

At center, Ralph Stewart, St. Louis, Mo., John Schrecongost, Cincinnati, O., and G. H. Barkalow, Belmar, N. J.

In the backfield, Darrell Swenson, Tacoma, Wash., A. J. Cadwallader, Yardley, Pa., Robert Piker, Hamilton, O., R. H. Lang, G. J. Cohee, Marcus Hook, Pa., and James Barrick, Pulaski, Another scrimmage is on tap for the squad during the coming week, along with work to strengthen pass offense and pass defense.

Crew-cial News

By Ann Onomus, Y3/c, V-10, USNR

Whodunit? Who named the the mysterious person who wanted to remain incognito and submitted his offering without his signature. You liked it, so from now, on it's "Crew-cial News."

V-J Day, points, going home, victory, discharges, confusing, isn't it? These words and many more have been running through our minds since that memorable night of August 14, 1945. Who can forget that night when we met at the Cruise Club to celebrate. Not a Sad Sack in the crowd, happiness 4.0, laughter, irrelevant songs such as "My Wild Irish Rose" and "Bell Bottom Trousers," and plenty of re-freshments on the house. Jack Baumring, PhM2c, prophesied a rosy future for himself as owner of an Army-Navy store, and John Hinkle, CBM, planned to open a garden, not the flower kind, in Yonkers.

Since that night, life has besince that high, the has become solemn, almost gloomy as the word "frozen" walked into some people's lives. Still the WAVES go on dreaming of fur coats, frilly blouses, nylons, and cars. Barbara Earp, Y3/c, even muttered something about the advantages of a dependent husband, ten points, you know.

Tony and Ted plan to make their dreams come true. Ursula M. Royston, PhM3c, and Tadeus J. Kobos, PhM1c, are to be mar- that's the life.
