MIAMI TOUR

At least 2,000 planes are expected to participate in the first post-war lightplane tour to Florida, beginning December 26, Gulf Oil Corporation, the tour sponsor, estimates.

Four routes to Miami, Florida, have been provided along with free gasoline and oil by the Gulf Oil Corporation.

Winston-Salem will be well represented in this tour. Mr. T. H. Davis, Mr. R. S. Northington, Mr. T. D. Blair, Mr. C. H. Vestal, Mr. Vernon Rudolph, Mr. J. L. Dyer, Mr. Fred Bahnson, and Mr. Robert Cox all left for Miami yesterday.

HANGAR FLYING

Maizie left yesterday for Raleigh to meet the one she has been expecting home for so long.

We gathered from the look on everyone's face on Wednesday morning that they all had quite a time welcoming in the New Year.

Schlosburg went home for New Year's day and made two resolutions which he broke five minutes later. By the way, did you notice the blonde who had lunch with him last week?

The shop made five New Year's resolutions.

We hear that Chitty has five new additions to his family. Five new Scotties.

Brownly has his nose to the grindstone finishing up the final plans for the new cub crop duster.

The stockroom is a busy place these days taking inventory.

Congratulations are in order for Mr. Groat. He celebrated his thirteenth wedding anniversary on Wednesday.

Major and Mrs. Major have been in Maxton, N. C. for the past few days.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

If the PA Flying Club would be interested in a party, please offer your suggestions as to the type of party you would like to have and we will make all the arrangements.
