audit system.

Before taking his present position with Piedmont Browne was employed by E. I. duPont de Nemours and Company, Inc., and Burlington Industries. A native of Wilmington, N. C., he attended public schools in that city and later received his Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of North Carolina.

Rawls was formerly associated with Ernst and Ernst, Certified Public Accountants in Winston-Salem. He was born in Roanoke Rapids, N. C., where he attended the local schools. He received his degree in 1958 from Wake Forest College, where he majored in accounting and economics.

A group from the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association (NCPA) poses before leaving on their annual charter trips via Piedmont. This year's journey was sponsored by the Eli Lilly Co. for a tour of their research and manufacturing facilities at Indianapolis, Ind. On the steps are the charter crew—Flight Attendant Charlie Cross, Captain Benny Walker, and First Officer Ralph Griffith. Chief organizers for the trip were W. J. Smith, NCPA Secretary (far left); Mrs. W. J. Smith, (seventh from left); and David F. McGowan, Lilly Co. representative (eighth from left).
