

Photographic Recap Of ALTA Meeting

▲ A look at the head table of the luncheon given during the final day of the ALTA meeting. Guests, hosts, and ALTA officials included (left to right): Don Britt, Assistant to President Davis; J. L. Deegan, Assistant to Robert Murphy; ATA President Stuart Tipton; Piedmont Director Glenn E. Anderson; AVL Mayor Earl W. Eller; Piedmont President T. H. Davis; CAB Vice Chairman Robert Murphy; Alleghany Airlines President Leslie Barnes; Gen. Joseph Adams, Executive Director of ALTA; Piedmont Director Charles Norfleet; and B. G. Smith, Sales Manager for Canadair Limited.

◀ President Davis acted as toastmaster during the conference's concluding luncheon. AVL Mayor Eller is on the left in this picture, which was taken as Mr. Davis was introducing Robert Murphy.

Asheville Mayor Eller and President Davis listen attentively as Robert Murphy talks on the future of local service carriers. Mr. Murphy was a featured speaker at the meeting.

◀ Top officials gathered at the ALTA meeting to exchange ideas. Heading the conference were (left to right): T. H. Davis, President, Piedmont Airlines; Gen. Joseph Adams, Executive Director of ALTA; Robert Murphy, Vice Chairman of CAB; and Leslie Barnes, ALTA Chairman and President, Alleghany Airlines.

◀ Manufacturers and suppliers sponsored several receptions during the conference. Two of the representatives from Lear, Inc., shown chatting with Superintendent of Communications L. A. Watson are (left) L. E. Percell and (right) James Churchill, both of Santa Monica, Calif.

Shown socializing a bit during a break is (left to right) Paul M. McMurray, A & H Flying Service, Arden, N. C.; M. F. Fare, Secretary and Assistant Treasurer; Jack Gwennap, Asheville Station Manager; and C. G. Brown, Vice President.