

Piedmonitor Pix

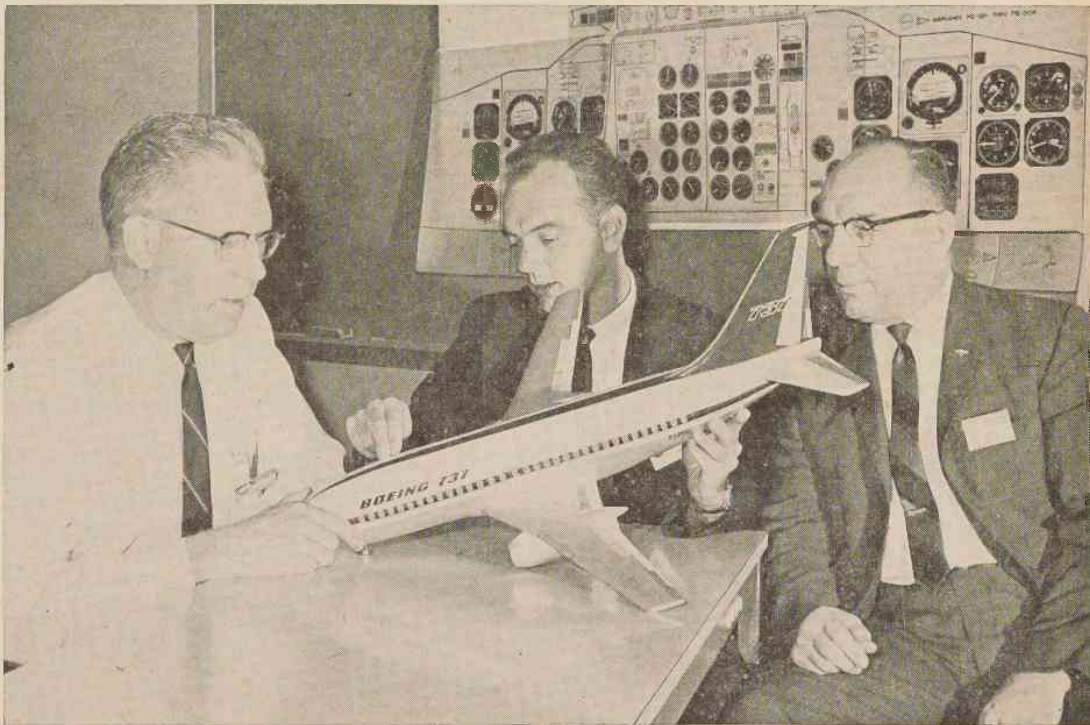

A RIBBON CUTTING ceremony was observed recently when a new office was opened for JAMTO at Camp Lejeune. Shown, from left, are Joe Gurganus — Office Manager, Major General Ormond Simpson, Piedmont Stewardess Janet Moore and Colonel W. T. Bray.

QUEEN OF TOBACCOLAND Miss Sandra Lea Barrick recently flew Piedmont to LaGuardia where she was met by station manager Eddie Jones and Mary Lillian Shelton who is travel director for the Virginia State Travel Service. The occasion of Miss Barrick's visit was the formal opening of Virginia's new travel office at 11 Rockefeller Plaza in New York.

PAI'ers IN RENTON discussing the features of the Boeing 737 are from left, John Rehder, Director of Training; William Hall, Aircraft Instructor and George Westerlind, Technical Training Instructor.

FINAL ASSEMBLY FILLED with 737s. Though Piedmont's first 737 has not yet reached the final assembly building at Boeing's Seattle plant, it won't be long! Meanwhile, this picture shows how the newest jets are shaping up.