

INTERESTING INTERLINING

Halcyon Hotels of London has something for everyone on St. Lucia, but especially for the airline employee and his family. It's a 35 percent discount on all accommodations through December 14. You can stay at one of the world's newest and most modern resorts, the Halcyon Days resort, near Vieux Fort, for $18 single or $26 double, Modified American Plan. With its 250 rooms, the Days is located on the Atlantic side of the Island of St. Lucia in an 83-acre coconut grove. There are dozens of activities — and after sundown, dancing to the music of the largest steel drum band you've ever seen. There are six bars and two restaurants available. Contrary to what you'll find throughout the Caribbean, you can "go informal" all the time at the Days. No one dresses formally for meals. If you prefer something a little on the quiet, secluded side and even less formal, how about the Halcyon Beach Club. It's located on the other side and other end of the Island, on the outskirts of Castries. The Club's 40 cabana-styled rooms open out onto the beach. Airline rates at $13 for singles, $23 for doubles and $33 for triples, Modified American Plan. Though smaller, the Club is just as "in," and also is a complete resort. Want to go in season (December 15 through April 30)? Rates for any airline employee are only a bit higher. At the Days, it's $31 double, $23 single, MAP, and at the Beach Club, $26 single, $36 double and $49 triple. Write Halcyon Hotels, Ltd., on company letterhead, at 1740 Broadway, New York, N. Y. 10019.

IN THIRTY YEARS
Piedmont has seen a lot of changes but Bill Barber isn't one of them. He received his pin for three decades of service at the last luncheon. President Davis, left, did the honors.

EIGHT PRETTY STEWS, all in a row. Just before their recent graduation Piedmont's newest passenger pleasers lined up for a picture taking session. In the usual order, they are Cathy Hardin, Terri

Shope, Becky Rector, Jennifer Humphries, Patsy Kish, Darlene Bowen, Georgane Kafka and Gloria Jarrett. Complimentary seatback letters have already started coming in for these girls.
