

Piedmont people

Bob Crumley, INT reservations supervisor, is the winner of the most recent TOPS (Total Outstanding Passenger Services) Award. He was recommended for the award by two of his co-workers who felt he had gone beyond the call of duty to show one of our customers that Piedmont people really care.

The elderly customer, confined to a wheelchair, travels frequently on Piedmont to attend VFW affairs. He follows the progress of Piedmont very closely and does not hesitate to offer suggestions that might improve our airline, but is equally quick to compliment our service.

Crumley visited this gentleman to thank him for flying Piedmont. He also took him a birthday gift of food and a radio. Crumley has also taken him on a tour of INT-RO and has had him to his home.

IAH promotion

To promote our new nonstop, round-trip services from IAH to BWI and BNA, City Sales Manager Don Freeland added a new twist to the general reception held for travel agents. He organized a trade show, and representatives from resorts and hotels in the Baltimore/Washington and Nashville areas flew to Houston and set up booths. Approximately 300 travel agents from the Houston area attended the event.

Among the trade show participants were representatives from Colonial Williamsburg, Baltimore's Inner Harbor, The Homestead, The Greenbrier, Myrtle Beach, British Airways, and the Bermuda Department of Tourism.

"The function was a total success," Freeland said.

"The grand prize was a trip for two qualified travel agents to Bermuda, including transportation to Bermuda via British Airways, accommodations in Bermuda, a two-night stay at the Hyatt in Baltimore, and round-trip service from IAH to BWI via Piedmont."

In addition to the reception and trade show, 12 of our marketing people participated in a blitz of the Houston area to promote our new services.

The annual service pin banquet will be held Tuesday, October 1, at the Benton Convention Center in Winston-Salem. Four hundred and fifty employees will be honored for their service with the Company.

Invitations were mailed in early August. If you have not received your invitation, contact Wilma Cook, extension 5537, or Janet Royall, extension 5471.
