'Christmas Spectacular' December 14

The Piedmont Employee Christmas Party is set for Saturday, December 14, at the Benton Convention Center in Winston-Salem.

"The theme is 'Christmas Spectacular,'" Jim Borden, chairman of the annual event, explained.

"Tickets are just $10 per person, and that includes all beverages and hors d'oeuvres. We think it will be a great evening for employees."

SMYLE, a well-known band from the Winston-Salem area, will perform, and drawings for special prizes will be held during the evening. The party begins at 8 p.m. and continues until 1 a.m.

"The Hyatt and Stouffer hotels, which are connected to the Convention Center by walkways, have also given us special rates for the night," Borden said.

"At the Hyatt, rooms are available for $27, single or double. At Stouffers, the cost is only $39."

Other committee members are:

Marietta Grow and Danny Hicks from the GO; Danny Culler, GAG; Retha Oakley and Karen Spivack, Madison Park; Jerri Johnson and Mary Lee Southard, Res-INT; Don Priddy, GSO-MM; and Phyllis Belton, Employee Services.

Tickets go on sale November 1. Only 1,300 tickets are available for employees and their spouses/dates. Check with your supervisor for details.

Record perfect for 30 years

Thirty years — that's how long TPA Agent Bob Stepp has worked for Piedmont without missing a day. Phil Bostick, TPA station manager, recently presented Stepp with a perfect attendance award — a special display box featuring miniature 737-300 and DC-3 models.

Stepp, who joined Piedmont in 1952, is one of 11 employees who has been honored for 30 years of perfect attendance through 1983.

This year, 1984 perfect attendance awards are being presented to 1,926 employees for perfect attendance in 1984. Forty-five employees have five years, 25 have 10 years, six have 15 years, five, 20 years, one has 30 years, and one has 35 years of perfect attendance.

Eddie Culler, assistant vice president-aircraft services, GAG, will receive the 35-year award. Irene Kiser, senior reservations agent-MCO, is the recipient of the 30-year award. The five 20-year honorees are: Mary Fairchild, executive secretary, INT, Accounting; Bob Plummer, cargo manager, GSO; Sid Collins, ILM station manager; Gene Clay, senior reservations agent-MCO; and Joe Bruce, TPA supervisor.
