

NASH & MIZELLE, AGTS

(INSURANCE & RENTALS)

WISH YOU BOYS GOOD LUCK AND A QUICK TRIP HOME BY WAY OF BERLIN AND TOKYO.

100

W. J.

BEST WISHES TO ALL SERVICE MEN

SIMMONS FURNITURE CO

J. E. SIMMONS, SR.

J. E. SIMMONS, JR.

"THE HOME OF QUALITY FURNITURE"

The above two firms each paid $25.00 for their advertisement and thereby gave the financial aid necessary in publishing this issue of the Home Front News.

TOWN TALK TO DATE

Bill Stineke, former Tarboro catcher-manager, and Portsmouth manager sold to Yankees, reports immediately. Slugging Jim Fox to manage Portsmouth. Banker Harold Myrick addresses Rotary on Canadian banking. Anne Lovelace, Tarboro beauty queen, wins State third place at Gastonia. Pfc. Guy F. Alford wounded in France on D-Day. Brother Sgt. Zeb Alford in Italy. Grace Powell, daughter E. B. Powell training for foreign missionary. H. C. Scott, Asst. County Agent, says county short of small grain crops. David Taylor gets major operation at Duke.

William M. Newsome wounded in France. Henry Gray Shelton elected President Edgecombe Mutual Livestock Assn., R. V. Knight, V.P., J.L.
Bulluck, Secty., Helen Harrell, Treas. Tobacco market opens with 125,000 lbs., with average 42¢. Pilot Club obligates to furnish ward or sun-room at Fort Bragg. Phoebe Jane Harris is progressive President of Club. Ann Lou Pearce, granddaughter C. E. Hammonds, enlists in Women's Army Corps. Fats Johnson on Guam, says unlike Coney Island. Guy F. Alford in hospital in England- wounded at Cherbung. Says liberated French give them good cats, flowers and wine. Says one bottle wine labeled, "For use of German Army only".

Ernest L. Dixon wounded in Italy in December, now "grounded" para-trooper in Italy. 140 prisoners stationed in Scotland Neck to work Edgecombe farms. Air Cadet Paul Warren at home on 14 day furlough.
Pvt. Joe E. Everett returns to States after 30 months in Pacific
Rev. Ernest Winborne of Staten Island visits Tarboro.

"Tootsie" Mayo drops a line from England. Gets the same impression lots of us get. The big mistake you made "Tootsie" is not having carried along lots of chocolates and soap. See you later. Jimmie (Zoeller Drug) Parker in France with infantry. Just yesterday, a Boy Scout and football lad at Tarboro High. A fine lad and all our fingers crossed for Jimmie.

So long G. I's, until the next issue, which we hope will be after V-Day, and that your addresses will be:
American Army of Occupation, Germany, or Japan.