

PICNIC AND VESPERS

Members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship and Presbyterian Youth Fellowship enjoyed a picnic and vesper service on Sunset Rocks last Sunday evening. After the vesper they enjoyed singing and games at the Ravenel home. Approximately 60 people attended.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Blakely spent the week-end in Winston-Salem where they visited relatives and friends.

Mrs. J. A. Riggsbee has returned to her home in Durhan, N.C. after a visit with her daughter Mrs. Sherman Pace.

Mrs. Mae Passmore who was bitten by a copperhead snake has been a patient at Highlands Community Hospital.

Mrs. Harry Holt was a patient at Highlands Community Hospital.

Mrs. Ema Engstrom of Coral Gables, Fla. was a recent patient at Highlands Community Hospital.

Mr. Ed Rogers is a patient at Highlands Community Hospital.

***PERSONALS***

Miss Bonnie Jo Gardner of Gainsville, Ga., and Miss Marilyn Bennett of Spartanburg, S.C., were week-end guests of Miss Mary Bascom Cook.

Mr. O.F. Summer spent Monday in Charlotte arranging bookings of motion pictures for the remainder of the summer and early fall.

Mr. W.C. Newton visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Newton of Washington, D.C., over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Newton celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday, July 20th.

Miss Ann Stevens has returned from Penland, N.C. where she attended the Handicrafts School, learning gem-cutting and jewelry-making.

Allen Byers has returned home from Holly Hill, S.C. where he has been visiting his grandmother. Allen is helping his mother in Byers Men's Shop.

TO ATTEND COLLEGE

Policeman James Blakely is planning to attend Western Carolina Teachers College at Cullowhee beginning this fall. He is interested in providing transportation to any student who may wish to drive back and forth with him. He plans to drive back and forth daily.

"THE STORY OF WILL ROGERS", Sun., Mon., Tues., at the Galax Theatre Starring Will Rogers, Jr., and Jane Wyman.

ANDERSON'S
VARIETY &
GIFT STORE

SOUVENIRS                      POTTERY
COSMETICS
POST CARDS                      CANDIES

KING'S INN

"WHERE WE MEET"

THE
COLONY SHOPS

HIGHLANDS - SARASOTA

THE FINEST IN RESORT WEAR
FOR MEN, WOMEN, AND CHILDREN.
GIFTS

LUNCHEON SERVED DAILY FROM 12
SATOLAH ROAD                      PHONE 3805

BELKS DEPT. STORE

FRANKLIN, N. C.

HOME OF BETTER VALUES

LARGEST VARIETY

LOWEST PRICES

TODAY AND EVERY DAY